Provided that the discount shall be allowed at the same rate to all persons entitled thereto.

(2) The Corporation may at any time revoke a resolution under this Section.

138. Annual letting value of land or building.-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, annual letting value of any building or land, whether revenue paying or not, shall be determined as per the resolution of the Corporation adopted in this behalf on the basis of per square meter of the carpet area of a building or land, as the case may be, taking into consideration the area in which the building or land is situate, its location, situation, purpose for which it is used, its capacity for profitable user, quality of construction of the buildings and other relevant factors and subject to such rules as may be made by the State Government in this behalf.

1-a The Commissioner shall prepare the draft resolution under sub-section (1) for the next financial year and submit before the Corporation before 31st December of each financial year. In case the Corporation fails to adopt the resolution as required by sub-section (1) by 31st March of each financial year then the draft resolution prepared by the Commissioner shall be presented to the Mayor and the resolution as approved by the Mayor shall be deemed to be the resolution finally adopted by the Corporation.

(2) On the basis of the resolution adopted by the Corporation under sub-section (1), every owner of land or building shall assess the annual letting value of his land or building and deposit the amount of property tax along with a return in this behalf, in the prescribed form, on or before the date fixed by the Corporation, failing which a surcharge at the rate, as may be determined by the Corporation, shall be charged.

(3) The variation up to ten per cent on either side in the assessment made under sub-section (2) shall be ignored. In case where the variation is more than ten percent, the owner of land or building, as the case may be, shall be liable to pay penalty equal to five times the difference of self assessment made by him and the assessment made by the Corporation.

(4) An appeal shall lie to the Mayor-in-Council against the orders passed under sub-section (3).

139. Requisition of name of owner,-

The Commissioner may, by written notice, require the occupier of any land or building to furnish him within fifteen days with the name and address of the owner of such land or building.

140. Treatment of property which is let to two or more persons in separate occupancies-

When any building or land is let to two or more persons holding in severally, the Assessing authority may, for the purpose of assessing, or revision the assessment list or amending a current assessment list for such building or land to the property taxes, either treat the whole thereof as one property, or, with the written consent of the owner of such building or land, treat each several holding therein or any two or more of such several holdings together, or each floor or flat, as a separate property and a building or land so treated as a single property shall, for the purposes of property tax, be deemed to be a single tenement.

141. Responsibility for payment of property Tax.-

(1) The property tax charged and levied upon any land or building under Section 135, shall be paid primarily by the owner thereof.

(2) The property tax charged and levied on the owner may also be recovered from any occupier of land or building under the circumstances, in the manner and to the extent as is provided in this Act or may be provided under the byelaws or rules made there under.

142. Employment for the purpose of assessment-

(1) The Corporation may, if it thinks fit, employ any person to determine the annual value of lands and buildings in accordance with the principles laid down in Section 138.

(2) Any person so employed shall have power, at all reasonable times and after giving due notice, and on production, if so required of authorization in that behalf from the Commissioner, to enter on, survey and value any land or building within the city which the Commissioner may direct him to survey and value.

(3) If any person willfully delays or obstructs any person in the exercise of any of his powers under this Section, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

143. Assessment of annual value and duration of assessment-

(1) The annual value of any land or building situate within the city as determined under the Madhya Pradesh Nagariya Sthawar Sampati kar Adhiniyam, 1964 (No. 14 of 1964) or the rules made there under, and in force for the purpose of that Act immediately before the first day of April, 1976 shall be deemed to be the annual value for the assessment of property tax on such land or building under this Act, until such time as the Commissioner makes a fresh valuation and determines annual value under this Act of the land and buildings therein and the annual value of such land or buildings shall remain unchanged for a period of one year and may be revised thereafter by the Commissioner at the termination of successive period of one year.

(2) The Commissioner may, instead making a new assessment every year, adopt the existing assessment, with such alteration as he thinks fit, as the assessment for each new year, giving to persons affected by such alterations the same notice of the altered valuation and assessment as would have been required if a new assessment had been prepared.

(3) The Commissioner shall arrange for a survey for the purpose of assessment of each part of the city at least once in five years save for the omission, with the previous consent of the Mayor-in-Council, of any small areas which might be more conveniently re-assessed in a subsequent year.

144. Returns for purposes of valuation.-

To enable him to prepare the assessment list, the Chief Executive Officer may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of any land or building or any portion thereof to furnish him within such reasonable period as the Chief Executive Officer may fix, with information or with a written return signed by such owner or occupier-

(a) as to the name and place of abode of the owner or occupier, or of both the owner and occupier of such land or building; and

(b) as to the measurement or the gross annual rent or revenue or the description or other specified details or the actual cost or estimated market value of such land or building.

(ii) Every owner or occupier from whom any such requisition is made shall be bound to comply with the same and to give true information or to make a true return to the best of his knowledge or belief.

(iii) Whoever omits without reasonable cause to comply with such requisition, or furnishes a return which is untrue, shall in addition to any other punishment to which he may be liable, be precluded from objecting to any assessment made by the Chief Executive Officer in respect of such land or building of which he is the owner or occupier.

145. Public notice and inspection of valuations.-

(1) When the valuation under section 143 of the lands and buildings in any ward has been completed, the Commissioner shall cause the respective valuations to be entered in a list and give public notice of the place where such list may be inspected.

(2) Time for filling complaints against valuation.- The Commissioner shall at the same time and in the same manner, give public notice of a date, not being less than thirty days from the publication of such notice by which objections to the amount of any annual value or other particulars entered in the assessment list may be delivered at his office.

146. Notice when valuation made for the first time is increased.-

The Commissioner shall, in all cases in which any land or building is for the first time valued, or in which the valuation of any land or building previously valued is increased under section 143 give special notice thereof, to the occupier of the same, and when the valuation is so increased, the said notice shall contain a statement of the grounds of the increase.

147. Notice of objection of valuation.-

- (1) Any person dissatisfied with a valuation made under this chapter may deliver at the municipal office a written notice stating the grounds of his objection to such valuation.
- (2) Such notice shall be delivered on or before the date fixed in this behalf in the public notice referred to in section 145 or 146.

148. Investigation of objections by Commissioner.-

- (1) All such objection, shall entered in a register to be maintained for the purpose and, on receipt of any objection, the Commissioner shall give a notice in writing to the objector of the time and place at which his objection will be investigated.
- (2) At the time and place so fixed the Commissioner shall hear the objection in the presence of the objector or his authorized agent if he appears, or may, for reasonable cause, adjourn the investigation.
- (3) When the objection has been determined, the order passed on such objection shall be recorded in the said register and, if necessary, an amendment made in the assessment list in accordance with the result of the objection.

149. Appeals to District Courts.-

- (1) If any dispute arises as to the liability of any land or building to assessment or as to the basis or principle of assessment or as to the amount of tax assessed and appeal shall lie from the decision of the Municipal Commissioner to the district Court having jurisdiction in the area whose decision shall be final.
- (2) Such appeals shall be presented to district Court in this regard within thirty days from the date of the order passed under section 148 and shall be accompanied by an extract from the register of objections containing the order objected to.
- (3) The provisions of Parts-II and III of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, relating to appeals shall apply to every appeal preferred under this section.
- (4) No appeal shall be admitted under this section unless an objection has been preferred under section 148.
- (5) Effect shall be given by the Municipal Commissioner to the decision of the District Court.
- (6) The pendency of an appeal under this section shall not operate to delay or prevent the levy of any tax or installment thereof payable in respect of any building or land according to the order of assessment under appeal but, if by the final decision in the appeal it is determined that such tax or installment ought not to have been levied in whole or in part, the Chief Executive Officer shall refund to the person whom the same has been levied, the amount of such tax or installment, or the excess thereof over the amount properly leviable in accordance with such final decision, as the case may be.

150. Valuation when to be final.-

- (1) Every valuation made by the Commissioner under section 143 shall, subject to the provisions of section 148 and 149 be final.

(2) Every order passed by the Commissioner under section 148 shall, subject to the provisions of section 149 be final.

151. Keeping of municipal assessment list.-

(1) The annual value fixed under this chapter shall be entered in one or more registers to be kept wardwise or in any other manner for the purpose wherein shall also be recorded:-

- (a) the serial number of each set of premises;
- (b) the description of each set of premises;
- (c) the name and place of abode of the owner and the name of the occupier;
- (d) the amount of the valuation;
- (e) the amount payable on account of the property tax;
- (f) any exemption granted from payment of the said tax; and
- (g) such other particulars as the Commissioner may direct.

(2) The particulars mentioned in sub-section (1) may be contained in as many registers as the Commissioner may determine which shall together constitute the assessment list.

(3) When the name of the owner or occupier of any premises is not known it shall be sufficient to designate him in the said assessment list as “the owner” or “the occupier”, as the case may be.

152. authentication of assessment list when all objections have been disposed of.-

(1) When objections have been determined and appeals disposed of and the entries required by section 151 have been made, the assessment list shall be authenticated by the Commissioner, who shall certify under his signature that except in the cases in which amendments have been made as shown therein, no valid objection has been made to the annual values entered in the said list.

(2) Thereupon the said assessment list shall, object to such alterations as may thereafter be made therein under the provision of sub-section (5) of section 149 or of section 153 be conclusive evidence of the amount of property tax leviable on each land or building within the city in the financial year to which the list relates.

153. Power of Commissioner to amend assessment list.-

(1) The Commissioner may at any time amend the assessment list by the inclusion, omission or substitution of any matter:

Provided that whenever he proposes to make any amendment in respect of any matter other than the correction of an arithmetical total, he shall, before making the amendment, send notice thereof to persons interested and shall allow thirty days to elapse for the making any objection to the proposed amendment:

Provided further that nothing in this sub-section shall empower the Commissioner to vary the valuation of any premises determined on appeal to the District Court.

(2) If any amendment be made in respect of any matter other than the correction of arithmetical total, any person on whom a notice is served may object by a written application addressed to the Commissioner and delivered at the Corporation Office before the date fixed in the said notice; and the provisions of sections 148 and 149 shall, with all necessary modifications apply to such objection.

(3) When the erection of a new building is completed after the completion of the assessment list, the Commissioner may add the particulars of the building to the list, and in such case the provisions of sections 145, 147, 148, 149 and 152 shall apply, except that no public notice shall be required. In such a case the assessment shall take effect from the beginning of the quarter following the date on which the building is added to the assessment list or from the date when it is occupied or let, if that is earlier.

154. Notice of increase of rent.-

(1) When an owner has furnished information or a written return as provided by section 144 he shall give notice in writing to the Commissioner of any subsequent increase in the rent.

(2) if an owner of any land or building or any portion thereof has, after it has been assessed for the same, made any increase in the rent thereof he shall give notice in writing to the Commissioner of such increase.

(3) The Commissioner may on receipt of such notice as to increase of rents amend the assessment list by altering the assessment of such land and or building or any portion thereof as provided for by section 153.

155. Notice to be given to Commissioner of demolition or removal of a building.-

(1) When any building or any portion of a building liable to the payment of property tax is demolished or removed otherwise than by order of the Chief Executive Officer, the person liable for the payment of the said tax shall give notice thereof, in writing, to the Chief Executive Officer.

(2) Until such notice is given, the person aforesaid shall be liable to pay every such property tax as he would have been liable to pay in respect of such building if the same, or any portion thereof, has not been demolished or removed.

156. Failure to give notice of increase rent.-

Who ever fails to give notice of an increase of rent required by this section gives notice of an increase of rent which in substances is untrue, shall in addition to any punishment to which he may be liable, be precluded from objecting to any assessment made by the Chief Executive Officer in consequence of such increase in respect of such building or land or any portion thereof which he is the owner.

157. Period for which revised valuation to continue in force.-

When the valuation of any land or building is revised in consequence of an objection made under section 147 or an appeal is preferred under section 149, the revised valuation shall take effect from the quarter in which the first valuation would have taken effect in the same manner and for the same period and subject to the same conditions as the original valuation.

158. Payment of property tax how affected by objections to valuations,-

When an objection to a valuation has been made under section 147 the property tax shall, pending the final determination of the objection, be paid on the previous valuation.

159. Refund of excess payment.-

If upon the hearing of any objection or appeal from any valuation it is made to appear to the Commissioner or the Appellate Authority, as the case may be, that appellant has paid any sum or sums of money in consequence of assessment which he ought not to have paid, the Commissioner or the Appellate Authority, as the case may be, shall direct the excess payment to be refunded to the appellant.

Supplemental Provision

160. Commissioner to supply copies on payment.-

The Commissioner shall furnish to any person who applies for it, a copy of the valuation or assessment list for the time being in force or any extract from any such list on payment of such sum as may be prescribed by byelaws by the Corporation, and the Commissioner or a person authorized by him in this behalf, shall, if required, certify the copy or extract in such manner as may be prescribed.

161. Tax not invalid for defect of form.-

(1) No assessment and no charge or demand of any tax under this Act shall be called in question or in any way affected by reason of:-

- (a) any mistake
 - (i) in the name, residence, place of business or occupation of any person liable to pay the tax; or
 - (ii) in the description of any property or thing liable to the tax; or
 - (iii) in the amount of tax assessed; or
- (b) any clerical error,
- (c) any other defect of form.

(2) For the purposes of assessing any tax on property under this Act it shall suffice if the property is so described as to be readily identifiable and the owner or occupier need not be named.

162. Power of the Corporation in regard to taxes.-

(1) The Corporation may exempt from the payment of any tax in whole or in part for any period not exceeding one year, any person who by reason of poverty is in its opinion unable to pay the same, and may renew such exemption as often as it may consider necessary.

(2) subject to the provisions of section 135 the Corporation, with the sanction of the Government:-

- (a) abolish, suspend or reduce the rate of any tax; or
- (b) exempt from the payment of any such tax in whole or in part any person or any class of persons or any property or class of property.

163. Power of the Government in regard to taxes.-

(1) The Government may after giving the Corporation an opportunity of expressing its views, by order, exempt from the payment of any such tax in whole or in part any person or class of person or any property or description of property.

(2) If any time it appears to the Government, on a representation made or otherwise, that any tax imposed by or under this Act is unfair in its incidence or that the levy thereof or of any part thereof is injurious to the interests of the general public; it may after giving the Corporation the opportunity of expressing its views require the Corporation to take within a specified period measures to remove the objection; and if within that period the requirement is not complied with to the satisfaction of Government, the Government may by notification suspend the levy of the tax or of such part thereof until the objection has been removed.

163-A. Creation of Infrastructure Development Fund.--

1. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other Act for the time being in force, the State Government may create an Infrastructure Development Fund with a view to assist the Municipal Corporation in developing the infrastructure.
2. The sources of the infrastructure fund and the procedure and manner in which the amount from the fund shall be provided to Municipal Corporation shall be such as may be prescribed.

164. Omitted

165. Duty of furnishing true information regarding liability to municipal taxation.-

(1) Every person shall, on the demand of an officer duly authorized by the Commissioner in this behalf, furnish such information as may be necessary in order to ascertain whether such person is liable to pay any tax under this Act and if so how much; and every hotel or lodging house keeper or secretary of a residential club shall also, on demand as aforesaid, furnish a list of all persons residing in such hotel, lodging house or club.

2) If any person so called upon to furnish information omits to do so or furnishes information which is untrue to his knowledge, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

166. Duty of occupier to furnish true information regarding owner's name and address.-

If the occupier of any land or building neglects or refuses, without reasonable cause, to comply with a notice served under Section 139 furnishes information which is untrue to his knowledge he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

167. Notice of transfers of title, when to be given.-

(1) Whenever the title in any land or building or in any part or share of any land or building is transferred, the transferor and the transferee shall, within three months of the registration of the deed of transfer or if it be not registered, within three months of the execution of the instrument of transfer, or if no such instrument be executed, after the transfer is effected, give notice in writing of such transfer to the Commissioner.

(2) Every person liable for the payment of a tax on any property whose transfers his title to or over such property without giving notice of such transfers to the Corporation as aforesaid, shall in addition to any other liability which he incurs through such neglect, continue to be liable for the payment of all such taxes payable in respect of the said property until he gives such notice or until the transfer is recorded in the books of the Corporation.

(3) In the event of the death of the person in whom title to any land or building or in any part or share of any land or building vests, the person who as an heir or otherwise takes the title of the deceased by descent or devise, shall, within three months from the death of the deceased, give notice of his title to the Commissioner in writing.

(4) Nothing in this Section shall be deemed to affect the liability of the heir or devise for the said taxes or to affect the prior claim of the Corporation for the recovery of the taxes due thereupon.

(5) (i) When any new building is erected, or when any building is rebuilt or enlarged, or when any building which has been vacant is re-occupied, the person primarily liable for the property taxes assessed on the building shall within fifteen days give notice thereof in writing to the Commissioner.

(ii) The said period of fifteen days shall be counted from the date of the completion or the occupation, whichever first occurs, of the building which has been newly erected or rebuilt, or of the enlargement, as the case may be, and in the case of a building which has been vacant, from the date of the re-occupation thereof.

168. Power of entry for the purpose of valuation of taxation.-

(1) The Commissioner may authorize any person to do the following acts at any time between sunrise and sun-set after giving twenty-four hours notice to the occupier, or if there be no occupier, to the owner, of a building or land-

(a) to enter, inspect and measure any building for the purpose of valuation;

Provided that, where any precautionary or other measures in respect of any such property have been taken by the Government for the recovery of any sum claimed by it, no proceedings shall be taken over continued under this chapter in respect of such property until the Government's claim has been paid off.

(2) Where the property is within the limits of the City, the warrant shall be addressed to an officer of the Corporation and where the property is outside the limits to the Collector of the district concerned:

Provided that the officer to whom the warrant is addressed under sub-section(2) or subsection (3) may endorse such warrant to a subordinate officer.

(3) for every warrant issued under this section, fee shall be charged at the rates specified in the regulations and the said fee shall be included in the costs of recovery.

176. Power of operation to remit certain fees:-

The Corporation may in its discretion remit the whole or any part of any fee chargeable under sub section (2) of section 174 or sub section (3) of section 175.

177. Power of officer to break open door or window.-

The officer charged with the execution of a warrant of distress issued under section 175 may if authorized by a general or special order in writing by the Commissioner between sunrise and sun-set break open any outer or inner door or window of a building in order to levy distress-.

(a) if he has a reasonable ground for believing that such building contains property which is liable to such distress; and

(b) if after notifying his authority and purpose and duly demanding admittance, he cannot otherwise obtain admittance:

Provided that such officer shall not enter or break open the door or window of any apartment appropriated to the use of women until he has given the women a reasonable Opportunity to withdraw.

178. Warrant how to be executed.-

Any officer charged with the execution of a warrant of distresses issued under section-175 shall, if authorized by the warrant, distrain whenever it may be found, any movable property or attach any immovable property of the person named in the warrant subject to the following conditions, namely:-

(a) the following property shall not be distrained –

(i) the necessary wearing apparel, cooking utensils and bedding of the defaulter and members of his family:-

(ii) the tools of artisans ;

(iii) when the defaulter is an agriculturist, his implements of husbandry, seed, grain, and such cattle as may be necessary to enable him to earn his livelihood;

(b) the distress shall not be excessive, that is to say, the property distrained shall be as nearly as possible equal in value to the amount recoverable under the warrant, and if any property has been distrained which, in the opinion of the Commissioner or of the person to whom the warrant is addressed, should not have been so distrained, it shall forthwith be returned to the person from whom it was distrained;

(c) the officer shall on distraining the property forthwith make in the presence of two witnesses an inventory of the property which he distrains under such warrant, and shall at the same time give a written notice in the prescribed form or in a form to the like effect along with a copy of such inventory to the person in possession thereof at the time of distraint that such property will be sold as therein mentioned;

(d) when the property is immovable-

- (i) the attachment shall be made by an order prohibiting the defaulter from transferring or charging the property in any way and all persons from taking any benefit from such transfer or charge;
- (ii) the order shall be proclaimed at some place on or adjacent to the property by beat of drum or other customary mode, and a copy of the order shall be fixed on a conspicuous part of the property and upon a conspicuous part of the Corporation office and also when the property is land paying revenue to the Government in the office of the Collector;
- (e) any transfer of or charge on the property attached or any interest therein made subsequent to such attachment, and without the written permission of the Commissioner shall be void as against all claims of the Corporation enforceable under the attachment.

179 Sale of goods distrained in special cases.-

- (1) When the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expense of keeping it in custody together with the amount to be levied is likely to exceed its value, the Commissioner shall at once give notice to the person in whose possession the property was, when distrained, to the effect that it will be sold at once; and shall sell it accordingly unless the amount named in the warrant is forthwith paid.
- (2) On the expiry of time specified in the notice served by the officer executing the warrant, the property distrained or attached, or in the case of immovable property, a sufficient portion thereof, if not sold at once under sub-section (1) may be sold by public auction under the orders of the Commissioner, unless the warrant is suspended by him or the sum due is paid by the defaulter together with all costs incidental to the notice, warrant, distress, attachment or detention of the property, as the case may be.
- (3) Where the sum due together with costs is paid by the defaulter as aforesaid, any attachment levied on his property shall be deemed to be removed and the property if immovable shall be returned.
- (4) All sales of immovable property under this section shall so far as may be practicable, be regulated by the procedure laid down in the rules made by the Government in that behalf.
- (5) After the sale of immovable property by auction as aforesaid the Commissioner shall put the person declared to be the purchaser in possession of the same and shall grant him a certificate to the effect that he has purchased the property to which the certificate refers.
- (6) No officer or servant in the service of the Corporation or any councilor during the term of his office shall directly or indirectly purchase any property at any such sale.
- (7) The sale proceeds or such part thereof as may be sufficient shall be applied, first in discharge of any sum due to the Government in respect of such property and secondly, in discharge of the sum due to the Corporation and all such incidental costs as aforesaid.
- (8) The surplus proceeds shall be forthwith credited to the Corporation and notice of such credit shall be given to the person in whose possession the property was at the time of distraint or attachment. If such person claims the surplus by written application to the Commissioner within three years from the date of the notice given under this sub-section, the principal officer shall refund the surplus to him.
- (9) Any such surplus not so claimed shall be the property of the Corporation.

180. Attachment of rent due-

(1) Where a bill for any sum due on account of any property tax is served upon an occupier of premises pursuant to section 391 the Commissioner may at the time of service or at any subsequent time cause to be served upon the occupier a notice requiring him to pay to the Corporation any rent due or falling due from him to the person primarily liable for the payment of the said tax to the extent necessary to satisfy the said sum due.

(2) Such notice shall operate as an attachment of the said rent until the said sum due on account of property tax shall have been paid and satisfied and the occupier shall be entitled to credit in account with the person to whom the said rent is due for any sum paid by him to the Corporation in pursuance of such notice.

(3) If the occupier shall fail to pay to the Corporation any rent due or falling due which he has been required to pay in pursuance of a notice served upon him as aforesaid the amount of such rent may be recovered from him by the municipality as if it were an arrear of property tax under section 391.

181. Sale of outside the City.-

Where the warrant is to be executed outside the limits of the City, the Commissioner may by endorsement direct the person whom the warrant is addressed to sell the property distrained or attached; and in such case it shall be lawful for such person to sell the property and to do all things incidental to the sale in accordance with the provisions of section 179 and to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Commissioner under sub-section (1) and (2) of section 179 in respect of such sale except the power of suspending the warrant. Such person shall after deducting all costs of recovery incurred by him, remit the amount recovered under the warrant to the Commissioner who shall dispose of the same in accordance with the provisions of section 179.

182. Fees and Costs chargeable.-

The fees for every notice or warrant issued and for the maintenance of any live-stock seized under this chapter shall be chargeable at the rates specified in this behalf in the byelaws of the Corporation and shall be included in the cost of recovery to be levied under section 175.

183. Summary proceedings may be taken against persons about to leave the City.-

(1) If any sum recoverable under the provisions of this chapter is due or is about to become due from any person and if the Principal Officer shall have reason to believe that such person is about to leave the limits of the City the Commissioner may after recording such reasons direct the immediate payment by such person of such sum and cause a bill for the same to be presented to him.

(2) If, on presentation of such bill, the said person does not forthwith pay the said sum or does not furnish security to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, the amount shall be levied by distress and sale of his movable property or by except attachment sale of his immovable property in the manner specified in this chapter except that it shall not be necessary to serve upon him any notice of demand and the principal officers warrant for distress and sale may be issued and executed without any delay.

184. Appeals.-

(1) Appeals against any notice of demand issued under sub section a(1) of section 174 may be made to the Appeal Committee constituted under section 403 and in the manner prescribed therein

Provided that the appeal shall not be entertained unless the sum due under section 174 is deposited in the Corporation and a copy of the receipt is enclosed with the appeal memo.

(2) No such appeal shall be heard had determined unless-

(a) a written objection has been made and determined in accordance with the provisions of this act; and

(b) the amount claimed from the appellant has been deposited by him in the municipality office, and a receipt thereof has been filed with a memo of appeal.

185. Liability of Buildings, lands, etc., for taxes.-

All sums due from any person in respect of taxes on any land or buildings shall, subject to prior payment of any land revenue in respect of it due to the Government, be a first charge upon the said land or building and upon any movable property found within or upon such land or building and belonging to the said person.

Provided that no arrears of any such tax shall be recoverable from any occupier who is not the owner, if such arrears are for a period during which the occupier was not in occupation.

186. Receipts to be given for all payments.-

For every sum paid on account of any tax under this Act, a receipt shall be tendered by the person receiving these payments, stating the sum and the tax on account of which it has been paid.

187. Writing of irrecoverable taxes.-

The Commissioner may, with the previous approval of the Corporation order to be struck off the books any sum due on account of any tax or of the costs of recovering any tax, which may appear to him to be irrecoverable.

188. Recovery of toll and cess on imports.-

(1) If any toll or cess on import is not paid on demand, the officer empowered to collect the same may seize any article on which the cess on imports is chargeable, or any animal on which the toll is chargeable or any part of the burden borne by such animals, of sufficient value to satisfy the demand.

(2) The Commissioner after the lapse of five days from the seizure and after the issue of a proclamation fixing the time and place of sale, may cause any property so seized, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold by auction to satisfy the demand with the expenses occasioned by the seizure, custody and sale thereof, unless the demand and expenses are in the mean time paid

Provided that, by order the commissioner, articles of a perishable nature which cannot be kept for five days without serious risk of damage may be sold after the lapse of such shorter time as he may think proper having regard to the nature of the article.

189. Taxation not to be questioned except under this Act.-

(1) No objection shall be taken to any valuation or assessment, nor shall the liability of any person to be assessed or taxed be questioned in any other manner or by any other authority than as provided in this Act.

(2) The Government may make rules under this Act regulating the refund of taxes and such rules may impose limitations on such refunds.

(3) No refund of any tax shall be claimed by any person otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and the byelaws made there under.

189-A. Recovery of taxes by public auction or private contract.-

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Corporation may, by public auction or private contract lease the recovery of any of the taxes and fees which may be imposed under this Act, subject to the conditions and limitation, if any, prescribed by the State Government in this behalf.

PART V - PUBLIC HEALTH, SAFETY AND CONVENIENCE
Chapter -XIII

(iii) in cases falling under clause (c) to close service latrines, and provide in their place, pour-water flush latrines or such other types of latrines;

as may be specified in the notices at such sites and within such period as may be specified in the notice or within such period as may be extended by the Chief Executive Officer by order in writing.

(2) The Commissioner may, by notice, require any person employing more than twenty workman or labourers to provide such latrines and urinals as he may think fit and to cause the same to be kept in proper order and to be daily cleaned.

(3) The Commissioner may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of any building or land to have any privy, latrine or urinal proved or the same shut out by a sufficient roof and wall or fence from the view of persons passing by or dwelling in the neighbour hood, or to remove or alter, as he may direct any door or trapdoor or other opening of a privy, latrine or urinal opening on to any street or drain.

(4) The State Government may by order fix a period within which the pour water flush or any other type of latrines shall be substituted for the existing service latrines within the limits of a Municipality.

(5) If the owner or occupier of a building or land in spite of service of notice or order under this section fails to carry out the work mentioned therein within the period specified in the notice or order, as the case may be, shall be punished with a fine which may, extent to one thousand rupees and in case he does not pay the fine with imprisonment which may extent ton three months.

Provided that without prejudice to the right to take proceedings for punishment in respect of the contravention of this section the Chief Executive Officer may get the said work done through his agency and recover the cost incurred in connection therewith, from the owner or occupier thereof, as the case may be, in the manner provided in Chapter XII.

196. Repair and closing of drains, privies, latrines, urinals, etc.-

(1) The Commissioner may by notice, require the owner or occupier of any building or land to repair, alter or put in good order any private drain, privy latrine, urinal, absorption pit, disposal work cesspool or receptacle for any filth or refuse, or to close or destroy any private drain, privy, latrine, urinal absorption pit, disposal work or cesspool belonging there to, or direct that such private drain shall, from such date as he prescribes in this behalf, be used for offensive matter and sewage only, or for rain-water and unpolluted sub-soil water only, and by written notice require the owner or occupier of the premises to make an entirely distinct private drain for rain water or for unpolluted sub-soil water or for offensive matter and sewage.

(2) No drain connecting any premises with a municipal drain or other place set apart for the discharge of drainage may be closed, discontinued or destroyed by the Commissioner under sub-section (1) except on condition of his providing another drain equally effectual for the drainage of the premises and communicating with such municipal drain or other place aforesaid as the Commissioner thinks fit; and the expenses of construction of any drain so provided by the Commissioner and of any work done under this Section shall be paid from the municipal fund.

197. Power of Commissioner to demolish drains etc.-

The Commissioner may, by notice may construct any new drain, privy, latrine, urinal, absorption pit, disposal work, cesspool or receptacle for filth or refuse without his permission in writing or contrary to his directions or the provisions of this Act or the rules or byelaws made there under or who may construct, rebuild or open any drain, privy, latrine, urinal, absorption pit, disposal work, cesspool or receptacle for filth or refuse which the Commissioner has ordered to be demolished or stopped or not to be made, to demolish the drain, privy, latrine, urinal, absorption pit, disposal work, cesspool or receptacle, or to make such alteration there in as he may think fit.

198. Unauthorised building over drains, etc.-

The Commissioner may, by notice, require any person who without his permission in writing may newly erect or rebuild any building over any drain, conduit water-course, pumping main, or water pipe vested in the corporation to pull down or otherwise deal with the same as the Commissioner may think fit.

199. Removal of latrine, etc., near any source of water supply-

(1) The Chief Executive Officer may, by notice, require any owner or occupier on whose land any drain, privy, latrine, urinal, absorption pit, disposal work, cesspool or other receptacle for filth or refuse for the time being exists within a hundred feet of any spring, well, tank, reservoir, or other source from which water is or may be derived for public use, to remove or close the same within one week from the service of such notice.

(2) Who ever, without the permission of Commissioner makes or keeps for a longer time than one week after the issue of notice under this Section, any drain, privy, latrine, urinal, absorption pit, disposal work, cesspool or other receptacle for filth or refuse, within hundred feet of any spring, well, tank, reservoir or other source from which water is or may be derived for public use, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for each day during which the offence is continued after the lapse of the period allowed for removal.

200. Discharging sewage.-

(1) Whenever without the permission of the Chief Executive Officer causes or knowingly or negligently allows the contents of any sink, cesspool or any other offensive matter to flow, drain or be put upon any street or public place or into any irrigation channel or any drain not set apart for the purpose, shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

201. Making or altering drains without authority-

Who ever, without the permission of the Commissioner makes or causes to be made, or alters or causes to be altered, any drain, leading into any of the drains vested in the Corporation shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

202. Power to require removal of nuisance arising from tanks and the like --

The Commissioner may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of any land or building to cleanse, repair, cover fill up or drain off any private well, tank, reservoir, pool, depression or excavation therein which may appear to the Commissioner to be injurious to health or offensive to the neighborhood:

Provided that if for the purpose of effecting and drainage under this section it should be necessary to acquire any land not belonging to the same owner or to pay compensation to any person, the Corporation shall provide such land or pay such compensation.

203. New building not to be erected without drains.-

It shall not be lawful to erect or re-erect any building, or premises any part of which is within one hundred feet of a municipal drain or of some place set apart by the Commissioner for the discharge of drainage or to occupy any such building newly erected or re-erected unless and until-

(a) a drain has been constructed which, in the opinion of the Commissioner, shall be sufficient for the effectual drainage of such building to such municipal drain or place; and

(b) there have been provided for and set up in such building and in the premises appurtenant thereto, all such appliances and fittings, as may appear to the Commissioner to be necessary for the purpose of gathering and receiving the drainage from, and conveying the same off, the said building and effectually flushing the drain of the said building and every fixture connected therewith.

204. Sewage and rain water drains to be distinct.-

Wherever it is provided in this Act that steps shall or may be taken for the effectual drainage of any premises, the Commissioner may require that there shall be one drain for offensive matter and sewage and another drain for rain-water and unpolluted sub-soil water, each emptying into separate municipal drains or other places set apart by the Commissioner for the discharge of drainage, or into other suitable places.

205. Rights of owners and occupiers of premises to carry drains through lands belonging to other persons-

(1) If it appears to the Commissioner that the only means by which the owner or occupier of any building or land can conveniently cause his drain to empty into a municipal drain or other place set apart by the Chief Executive Officer for the discharge of drainage, is by carrying the same into, through or under any land belonging to or occupied by some person other than the said owner or occupier, the Commissioner shall give such other person a reasonable opportunity of stating any objection, and if no objection is raised, or if any objection which is raised appears to him valid or insufficient, may, by an order in writing, authorise the said owner or occupier to carry his drain into, through or under the said land in such manner as he may think fit to allow.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, on receipt of any such order bearing the signature of the Commissioner, the person in whose favour it is made or any agent or person employed by him for the purpose may, after giving to the owner or occupier of the land reasonable written notice of his intention to do so, enter upon the said land with assistants and workmen at any time between sunrise and sunset, and execute the necessary work.

(3) In executing any work under this section as little damage as possible shall be done, and the owner or the occupier of the premises for the benefit of which then work is done shall-

(a) cause the work to be executed with the least practicable delay;

(b) fill in re-instate and make good at his own cost and with the least practicable delay, the ground or portion of any building or other construction opened, broken up or removed for the purpose of executing the said work; and

(c) pay compensation to any person who sustains damages by the execution of the said work.

(4) If the owner or occupier of the premises applies to the Commissioner to get the work executed by the Corporation, the Commissioner shall cause such work to be executed by municipal or other agency under his own supervision and may recover the expenses incurred thereby from such owner or occupier.

(5) If any land in which work has been executed under sub-section (2) was unbuilt upon at the time of such execution and if at any time thereafter then owner or occupier thereof desires to erect a building thereon and applies to the Commissioner in this behalf, the Commissioner shall, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of the premises for the benefit of which such drains was constructed, to close remove or divert the same in such manner as may be approved by the Commissioner and to fill in reinstate, and make good the land as if the drain had not been carried into, through or under the same.

206. Obligation of owner of drain to allow use of or joint ownership therein to others.-

(1) Every owner of a drain connected with a municipal drain or other place set apart by the Commissioner for drainage shall be bound to allow the use of it to other persons, or to admit other persons as joint owners thereof, on such terms as may be prescribed under section 208.

207. How right of use or joint ownership of a drain may be obtained by a person other than the owner.-

Any person desiring to drain his premises into a municipal drain through a drain of which he is not an owner may make a private arrangement with the owner for permission to use his drain, or may apply to the Commissioner for authority to use such drain or to be declared a joint owner thereof.

208. Commissioner may authorize person other than the owner of a drain to use the same or declare him to be a joint owner thereof.-

(1) Where the Commissioner is of opinion whether on receipt of an application or otherwise, that the most convenient means by which the owner or occupier of any premises can drain such premises is through a drain belonging to some person other than the said owner or occupier, the Commissioner shall give the owner of the drain a reasonable opportunity of stating his objection thereto, and if no objection is raised or if any objection which is raised appears to him invalid or insufficient, may, by an order in writing, authorize the said owner or occupier to use the drain or declare the said owner to be a joint owner thereof, on such conditions as may appear to him equitable with regard to the payment of rent or compensation and to connecting the drain of the said premises with the communicating, repairing, flushing and cleaning the joint drain.

(2) Every such order, bearing the signature of the Commissioner, shall be a complete authority to the person in whose favour it is made, or to any agent or person employed by him for this purpose, after giving or tendering to the owner of the drain the compensation or rent specified in the said order, and otherwise fulfilling, as far as possible, the conditions of the said order and after giving to the owner of the drain reasonable written notice of his intention so to do, to enter upon the land in which the said drain is situated with assistants and workmen, at any time between sunrise and sunset and, subject to the provisions of this Act, to do all such things as may be necessary for-

(a) connecting the two drains; or

(b) renewing, repairing or altering the connection; or

(c) discharging any responsibility attaching to the person in whose favour the Commissioner's order is made for maintaining, repairing flushing or cleaning the joint drains or any part thereof.

(3) In respect of the execution of any work under sub-section (2), the person in whose favour the Commissioner order is made shall be subject to the same restriction and liabilities as are specified in sub-sections (3) and (5) of section 205.

209. Power of Commissioner to drain premises in combination,---

(1) If, in the opinion of the Commissioner any part of a group block of premises is situated conveniently near a municipal drain already existing or about to be constructed or a place set apart by the Commissioner for the discharge of drainage, and if the Commissioner is of opinion that such group or block can be drained more economically or advantageously in common than separately, he may give the owner of all the premises a reasonable opportunity of stating any objection, and, if no objection is raised or if any objection which is raised appears to him invalid or insufficient, may cause such group or block to be drained by such methods as appears to him to be most suitable therefor, and the expenses incurred by him in so doing shall be paid by the owners of such premises in such proportion as the Commissioner may think fit.

(2) Not less than fifteen days before any work under this section is commenced, the Commissioner shall, by written notice, intimate to the owners of all the premises to be drained--

(a) the nature of the intended work;

(b) the estimated expenses thereof; and

(c) the proportion of such expenses payable by each owner.

210. Connecting the drains to be constructed at the expenses of owners of premises.-

(1) In the case of premises abutting on a public street in which there is a municipal drain and in the case of premises drained in pursuance of the provisions of this Chapter, the Commissioner shall construct at the expense of the owner of the said premises such portion of the drain of the said premises as may be necessary to lay under any part of a public street.

(2) The portion of any connecting drains so laid under a public street shall vest in the Corporation and be maintained and kept in repair by the Commissioner as a municipal drain.

(3) The remainder of every drain constructed, erected, set up or continued for the sole use and the benefit of any premises shall-

(a) vest in the owner of such premises;

(b) be maintained and kept in repair by the owner or occupier of such premises; and

(c) be from time to time flushed, cleansed and emptied under the orders of the Commissioner at the cost of the municipal fund:

Provided that, where several premises are drained in common under the last preceding section, such remainder shall vest in the owners jointly and the cost of maintenance and repair thereof shall be distributed in the same proportions as are fixed by the Commissioner under the said section.

211. Affixing of pipes for ventilation of drains.-

(1) For the purpose of ventilating any drain, whether belonging to the Corporation or to any other person, the Commissioner may, after giving not less than four days written notice to the occupiers of the premises erect upon any premises or affix to the outside of any building, or to any trees, any such shaft or pipe as may appear to him necessary and may cut through any projection from any building including the eaves of any roof there of in order to carry up such shaft or pipe through any such projection and may lay in, through or under any land such appliances as may in the opinion of the Commissioner be necessary for connecting such ventilating shaft or pipe with the drain intended to be ventilated.

(2) Any shaft or pipe so erected or affixed shall-

(a) be carried at least fifteen feet higher than any sky-light or window situated within a distance of forty feet there from;

(b) if the same be fixed to a wall supporting the eaves of a roof, be carried at least five feet higher than such eaves; and

(c) be removed by the Commissioner to some other place, if at any time the owner of the aforesaid premises, building or tree is desirous of effecting any change in his property which cannot without unreasonable inconvenience be carried out unless the shaft or pipe is removed.

(3) If the Commissioner declines to remove a shaft or pipe under clause (c) of sub-section (2), the owner of the aforesaid premises, building or tree may apply to the District Court, and the District Court may, after such enquiry as it thinks fit to make, direct the Commissioner to remove the shaft or pipes, and it shall be incumbent on the Commissioner to obey such order.

(4) Where the owner of any building or land cut through, opened or otherwise dealt with under sub-section (1) is not the owner of the drain intended to be ventilated, the Commissioner shall, so far as is practicable, reinstate and make good such buildings and fill in and make good such land at the cost of the municipal fund.

212. Right of Corporation to drains constructed at charge of Municipal fund.

All drains and fittings thereof (including ventilation shafts and pipes) constructed or set up at the cost of the municipal fund all drains constructed at the cost of private person on or under any municipal land shall vest in the Corporation.

Chapter - XIV

CONSERVANCY

213. Deposit of rubbish, offensive matter, sewage and carcasses.-

The Commissioner shall provide or appoint, in proper and convenient situations, public receptacle, depots and places for the temporary deposit or final disposal of rubbish, offensive matter, sewage and the carcasses of dead animals accumulating in the Municipal area.

(2) All things deposited in receptacles, depots or places provided or appointed under this section shall be the property of the Corporation.

214. Collected and removal of sewage.-

The Commissioner may give public notice that the collection and removal of sewage, offensive matter and rubbish from the lands and the buildings in any part of the city will be undertaken by municipal agency, and he shall then forthwith take measures for the due collection and removal of such matter from any lands and buildings situated in the said part of the city.

215. Collection and temporary deposit of rubbish and offensive matter by occupiers of premises.-

(1) The Commissioner may, by public notice, direct that all rubbish and offensive matter accumulating in any premises in any street or quarter of the city, specified in the notice shall be collected by the occupier of such premises and deposited in a box, basket or other receptacle, of a kind prescribed by byelaws by the Corporation, to be provided by such occupier and kept near the entrance to, or, where open space is available, within the premises

(2) the Commissioner may cause public dust-bins or other convenient receptacles to be provided at suitable intervals and in proper and convenient situations in streets or quarters in respect of which no notice issued under sub-section (1) is for the time being in force and may, by public notice, direct that all rubbish and offensive matter except trade refuse, accumulating in any premises, the entrance to which is situated within fifty yards of any such receptacle, shall be collected by the occupier of such premises and deposited in such receptacle. The trade refuse shall be removed to and deposited at such places as the Commissioner may direct.

(1) No person shall, directly or indirectly, himself or by any other person on his behalf, sell, expose or hawk for sale, or manufacture or store for sale any article of food or drink which is not of the nature, substance or quality it is represented to be:

Provided that an offence shall not be deemed to be committed under this section in the following cases, namely:-

(a) where any matter or ingredient not injurious to health has been added to any article of food or drink in order to facilitate the production or preparation of the same as an article of commerce in a state fit for carriage or consumption, and not fraudulently to increase the bulk, weight or measure of the article or to conceal the inferior quality thereof; or

(b) where any article of food or drink is unavoidably mixed with some extraneous matter in the process of collection or preparation.

(2) In any prosecution under this section it shall be no defence to allege that the vendor, manufacturer or storer was ignorant of the nature, substance or quality of the article sold, exposed, hawked about for sale, or manufactured or stored for sale, by him, or that the purchaser having brought such article only for analysis was not prejudiced by the sale.

264. Licence required for dealing in milk etc.-

No person shall, without or otherwise than in conformity with the terms of a licence granted by the Commissioner in this behalf-

(a) carry on within the limits of the City the trade or business of a dealer in milk or milk products or of an importer, vendor or hawker of the same, or dairyman; or

(b) use any place as a dairy or cattle pen or for the sale of milk or milk products.

265. Provisions relating prosecution.-

In any prosecution under sections 259, 260, 261 and 262-

(a) the Court shall, until the contrary is proved, presume that any animals, food, drink, drug or substitute therefore found in the possession of a person who is in the habit of selling that class of animal or of manufacturing, storing or selling such articles, was being kept, manufactured or stored for sale by such person;

(b) no such person shall plead that he was ignorant that the animal, foods, drink, drug or a substitute was diseased, unsound, unwholesome, unfit for human consumption or adulterated or did not fulfil the conditions specified or was substitute, as the case may be;

(c) no offence shall be deemed to have been committed where such person proves to the satisfaction of the court that he obtained the food, drink, drug or substitute under a warranty from the person manufacturing it within the City or importing it within the same that the food, drink, drug or substitute had not been adulterated, or that it fulfilled the conditions specified or that it was not a substitute and that he had no reason to believe otherwise or had no reasonable ground for believing that by lapse of time or otherwise the warranty no longer held good.

266. Liability of warrantors.-

When any person has been discharged or acquitted of an offence on the grounds mentioned in clause (c) of section 265 and the warranty proves to be incorrect or misleading, the warrantor shall be liable to be prosecuted for such offence and the provisions of section 265 shall apply in a like manner as if he were himself the seller or storer, as the case may be.

267. Inspection of place for sale of food or drink and seizure of unwholesome articles or utensils found therein.-

(1) Any Councillor or any committee authorized by the Mayor in this behalf or any officer of the Corporation duly authorized in this behalf by the Commissioner may enter into and inspect any market, building, shop, stall or place used for the sale of any animal, food, drink or drug intended for human consumption or medical treatment or for the preparation, manufacture or storage of the same for sale, and may inspect and examine any such animal, food, drink or drug and any utensil or vessel used for preparing manufacturing or containing any such food, drink or drug.

(2) If any such animal appears to such officer to be diseased, or if any such food drink or drug appears to him to be unsound, unwholesome or unfit for human consumption or medical treatment, as the case may be, or to be adulterated, or not to fulfill the specified conditions or to be a substitute or if any such utensil or vessel is of such kind or in such state as to render any food, drink or drug, prepared, manufactured or contained therein unwholesome or unfit for human consumption or medical treatment, he may seize and remove such animal, food, drink, drug, utensil or vessel in order that the same may be dealt with as hereinafter in this chapter provided, and he may arrest any person in charge of any such animal, food, drink or drug.

(3) The authorized officer may, instead of removing any animal, food, drink, drug, utensil or vessel seized under sub-section (2) leave the same in such safe custody as the Commissioner directs in order that it may be dealt with as hereinafter in this chapter provided and no person shall remove it from such custody or interfere or tamper with in any way while it is so detained.

268. Destruction of animals and articles seized under section 267.-

(1) When any animal, food, drink, drug, utensil or vessel is seized under sub-section (2) of section 267, it may be destroyed by the officer making the seizure with the consent of the owner or the person in whose possession it was found.

(2) The officer destroying any animal, food, drink, drug, utensil or vessel under sub section (1) shall report such destruction to the Health Officer.

(3) If any food, drink, or drug seized under sub-section (2) of section 267 is of perishable nature and is in the opinion of the officer making the seizure, infected, unsound, wholesome or unfit for human consumption or medical treatment, it may, with the previous sanction of the Health Officer be destroyed without the consent referred to in sub-section (1).

(4) The expenses incurred in taking any action under sub-sections (1) and (3) shall be paid by the person in whose possession such animal, food, drink, drug, utensil or vessel was at the time of its seizure and no claim shall lie for compensation for any animal or article so destroyed.

269. Taking before Magistrate of animals and articles seized under section 267.-

(1) Any animal, food, drink, drug, utensil or vessel seized under sub-section (2) of section 267 but not destroyed in pursuance of section 268 shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 267 be taken before a Magistrate as soon as may be after such seizure.

(2) If it appears to the Magistrate that such animal, food drink, drug, utensil or vessel was rightly seized, he shall cause the same to be forfeited to the Corporation or to be destroyed at the expense of the person in whose possession it was found at the time of its seizure.

(3) If the Magistrate is of the contrary opinion, the person from whose shop or place it was taken shall be entitled to have it resorted to him and it shall be in the discretion of the Magistrate to award him such compensation, not exceeding the actual loss or expenses which he has sustained or incurred, as the Magistrate may think proper.

270. Food, drink or drugs directed to be destroyed deemed to be the property of the Corporation.-

Any animal, food, drink or drug in respect of which any authority exercising powers under this chapter passes an order of destruction or disposal so that it cannot be used as food or medicine, shall thereupon be deemed to be the property of the Corporation.

271. Application of provisions of this chapter to other articles.-

The provisions of this chapter shall, so far as they are applicable, apply to such other articles also as the Government may by notification in the Gazette declare to be dangerous for human use.

Chapter - XXI

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Madhya Pradesh Land Revenue Code 1959 (No, 20 of 1959) the transfer or agreement to transfer of plots made by a colonizer, in an area of illegal diversion or illegal colonization shall be void.

(2) The Commissioner shall cause to be published a public notice three times in the local newspapers for the purpose of taking over the management of land of illegal colonization. After the publication of such notice if any objection is received from the colonizer or the plot holder it shall be considered by the Commissioner and if no objection is received then the Commissioner shall take over the management of such land and cause the area to be planned and developed in such manner as may be prescribed and allot the plots in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) The allottee shall on fulfillment of the conditions be deemed to be a valid transfers of the plot , and the power of the Commissioner as manager of the plot shall come to an end.

(4) Once the Commissioner takes up the management of any colony it shall be deemed that the diversion of land of such colony has been done and its use is in accordance with the master plan of the city.

292-F. Forfeiture of the land involved in illegal colonization.-

The right, title and interest of the colonizer in the land under illegal colonization, shall upon and from the date of taking over management of the land under sub-section (2) stand forfeited and vested in the Municipality free from all encumbrances.

292-G Punishment for not taking action against the illegal colonization.-

Any officer or servant subordinate to the Commissioner who has been authorized by him either to inspect, report, stop or to remove any construction on illegal colonization knowingly omits to take action against such illegal colonization or construction therein, forthwith or a police officer responsible to provide police assistance for removal of illegal colonization or illegal construction therein, does not provide adequate protection and support, shall be punished with a simple imprisonment which may extend to three years or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees or with both.

Chapter XXIV

BUILDING CONTROL

293. Prohibition of Erection or re-erection of buildings.-

(1) No person shall-

- (i) erect or re-erect any building; or
- (ii) commence to erect or re-erect any building; or
- (iii) make any material external alteration to any building; or
- (iv) construct or re-construct any projecting portion of a building which the Chief Executive Officer is empowered by section---- to require to be set back or is empowered to give permission to construct or reconstruct,-

(a) unless the Chief Executive Officer has either by an order in writing granted permission or has failed to intimate within the prescribed period his refusal of permission for the erection or re-erection of the building or for the construction or re-construction of the projecting part of the building; or

(b) after the expiry of one year from the date of the said permission or such longer period as the Chief Executive Officer may allow or from the end of the prescribed period, as the case may be:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any work, addition or alteration which the Municipality may by byelaw declare to be exempt.

(2) If a question arises whether a particular alteration in or addition to an existing building is or is not a material alteration the matter will be determined by the Commissioner.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the order of the Commissioner in this behalf may appeal to the district court within thirty days of such order in the manner prescribed therefore and the decision of the district court shall be final.

294. Notice of Buildings.-

Every person who intends to erect or re-erect a building shall submit to the Commissioner-

(a) an application in writing for a approval of the site together with a site plan of the land; and in the case of land which is the property of the Government or of the Corporation a certified copy of the documents authorizing him to occupy the land, and if so required by the Commissioner the original document or documents; and

(b) an application in writing for permission to build together with a ground plan, elevation and section of the building and a specification of the work to be done.

(2) Every plan of any building to be constructed wholly or partly of masonry, submitted under sub-section (1) shall, in token of its having been prepared by him or under his supervision, bear the signature of a licensed surveyor.

(3) Every document submitted under sub-section (1) shall be prepared in such manner and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed by byelaws.

(4) Nothing herein contained shall require a person to comply with the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (1) until such time as the site has been approved by the Commissioner or such person as he may appoint.

295. Commissioner to refuse erection or re-erection of buildings.-

(1) The Commissioner shall refuse to sanction the erection or re-erection of any building in contravention of any scheme sanctioned under section 291 or in contravention of any rule or byelaw made under the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Commissioner may refuse to sanction the erection or re-erection of any building if in respect of the building there are sufficient reasons which shall be communicated in writing to the applicant, why sanction should not be given, or if the land on which it is proposed to erect or re-erection such buildings is vested in the Government or in the Corporation and the consent of the Government or the Corporation, as the case may be, has not been obtained, or if the title to the land is in dispute between the applicant and the Corporation or the Government.

(9) In sub-section (2) but subject to the provisions of sub-section ----- of section---- if the Chief Executive Officer within thirty days of the receipt from any person of a valid notice of such person's intention to erect or re-erection a building, or within sixty days of such receipt if the notice relates to a building on the same or part of the same site on which sanction for the erection of a building has been refused within the previous twelve months, neglects or omits to pass orders sanctioning or refusing to sanction such erection or re-erection, such erection or re-erection, shall, unless the land on which it is proposed to erect or re-erection such building belongs to or vests in the Municipality, be deemed to have been sanctioned, except in so far as it may contravene any rule or byelaw or any town-planning schemes sanctioned under this Act or any other enactment for the time being in force:

Provided that if an order granting or refusing such sanction is suspended under section---- the period specified by this sub-section shall commence to run afresh from the date of communication of final orders under the said sanction by the Government.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) but subject to the provisions of sub-section 10 of section-291 if the Commissioner within thirty days of the receipt from any person of a valid notice of such person's intention to erect or re-erection a building, or within sixty days of such receipt if the notice relates to a building on the same or part of the same site on which sanction for the erection of a building has been refused within the previous twelve months, neglects or omits to pass orders sanctioning or refusing to sanction such erection or re-erection, such erection or re-erection, shall, unless the land on which it is proposed to erect or re-erection such building belongs to or vests in the Corporation, be deemed to have been sanctioned, except in so far as it may contravene any rule or byelaw or any town-planning schemes sanctioned under this Act or any other enactment for the time being in force:

Provided that if an order granting or refusing such sanction is suspended under section 421 the period specified by this sub-section shall commence to run afresh from the date of communication of final orders under the said sanction by the Government.

296. Grounds on which site of proposed building may be disapproved.-

The Commissioner may refuse to approve the site on which an applicant proposes to erect or re-erection any building-

(a) that the erection or re-erection of the proposed building on such site would be in contravention of a town-planning scheme under section 291 or of any other provision of this Act or of any other enactment for the time being in force; or

(b) the site is in a portion within the limits of the City in which the position and direction of the streets have not been determined, and that the building which it is proposed to erect on such site will, in the opinion of the Commissioner, obstruct or interfere with the construction in future of suitable streets in such portion or with the drainage, water-supply or ventilation thereof:

Provided that any person to whom permission to erect or re-erect a building on such a site has been refused may, by written notice to the Chief Executive Officer require that the position and direction of streets to be laid down in future in the vicinity of the proposed building should be forthwith determined, and if such requisition is not complied with within one year from the date thereof, may, subject to all other provisions of this Act applicable there to, proceed with the erection of his building; or

(c) that the site has been re-claimed or used as a place for depositing sewage, offensive matter rubbish or then carcasses of dead animals or is otherwise in sanitary or dangerous to health ; or

(d) that the site is in a portion within the limits of the City for which a town-planning scheme has not been sanctioned by the Government and that the building which it is proposed to erect or re-erect on such site will, in the opinion of the Commissioner, be likely to conflict in a manner, to be communicated in writing to the applicant, with the provisions of a town-planning scheme:

Provided that any person to whom permission to erect or re-erect a building on such a site has been refused may, by written notice to the Chief Executive Officer, require that the preparation of a town-planning scheme for the portion in which the site is situated shall be proceeded with as early as possible; and if the applicant is not informed in writing within twelve months of the date of the requisition that the Government have sanctioned the said town-planning scheme, he may subject to all the other provisions of this Act applicable there to proceed with the erection or re-erection of the building in respect of which the application was made.

297. Grounds on which permission to erect or re-erect building may be refused.-

(1) The Commissioner shall not grant permission to erect or re-erect any building unless and until he has approved of the site thereof on an application under sub-section 294.

(2) The Commissioner shall not grant permission to erect or re-erect any building.

(a) if the plans and specifications submitted with the application show that such building is not in accordance with a town-planning scheme sanctioned under section 291, or with any provision of this act, or any rule or byelaw made there under , or any provision of any law for the time being in force; or

(a-1) if in his opinion the erection or re-erection of such building would be a nuisance or injurious to the inhabitants of the neighbourhood or to the public, or

(b) unless and until any plans, specifications or particulars called for by him are supplied.

298. Supervision of building and works.-

Every person who intends to erect a new building or executes may such work as is described in section 294, shall erect the building or execute the work in such manner, under such supervisions through such qualified agency, and subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed by the byelaws.

299. Power of Commissioner to direct modification of a sanctioned plan of a building before its completion.-

The Commissioner may before any work has been commenced in pursuance of any permission granted by it under section 293 revoke such permission and may give fresh permission in lieu thereof on such conditions, in accordance with this Act and rules, and byelaws made thereunder, with reference to the matters mentioned in the said section as it thinks proper, and may direct that the work shall not be proceeded with unless and until all questions connected with the respective location of the building and nay street have been decided to its satisfaction

299-A. Power of State Government to cancel or revise permission for construction of a building.-

If it is found that any permission for construction of a building has been given in violation of any provision of this Act or rules or byelaws made there under or in the opinion of the State Government it is necessary in the public interest that the permission granted by the Municipality deserves to be cancelled or revised the State Government shall have power to cancel or revise such permission and on such cancellation or revision, as the case may be, any construction contrary to the order regarding cancellation or revision shall be deemed to be without permission and shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made there under.

Provided that no such order shall be passed unless the aggrieved party has been given an opportunity of being heard.

300. Lapse of sanction after one year from the date of such sanction.-

Every sanction for the erection or re-erection of any building shall remain in force for one year only from the date of such sanction, or for such longer period as the Chief Executive Officer may allowed when conveying sanction under section 293. If the erection or re-erection of the building is not commenced within one year and completed within two years or such longer period as may have been allowed by the Chief Executive Officer the sanction shall be deemed to have lapsed; but such lapse shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh sanction under the foregoing provision of this Act

301. Completion certificate and permission to occupy or use.-

- (1) Every person who-
- (i) erects or re-erects any building or
 - (ii) it make any material external alteration in or addition to any existing building; or
 - (iii) construct or re-constructs any projecting portion of a building which the Commissioner is empowered under section ---- to require to be set back or is empowered to give permission to construct or re-construct; shall within one month of the completion of the work delivered to the Commissioner at his office a notice in writing of such completion and shall give to the Commissioner all necessary facilities for the inspection of such work.

- (2) Within seven days after the receipt of the said notice the Commissioner shall depute an officer to commence the inspection of such work.

(3) Within seven days from the date of commencement of such inspection the Commissioner shall-

(a) give permission for the occupation of the building erected or for the use of the part of the building re-erected; or

(b) refuse such permission in case such erection, construction or re-construction is in contravention of any provision of this Act or any rule or byelaw made there under or any other enactment for the time being in force.

(4) No person shall occupy or permit to be occupied any such building or use or permit to be used any part affected by the re-erection of such building-

(a) until the permission referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (3) has been granted in the manner prescribed by byelaws;

(b) unless the Commissioner has failed for fifteen days after the receipt of notice of completion to intimate his refusal to grant the said permission.

302. Power of Commissioner to stop progress of building work unlawfully commenced or carried on-

(1) In any case in which the erection commenced is being carried on unlawfully as mentioned in Section 307, the Commissioner may by written notice require the building operations to be discontinued from the date of service of such notice.

(2) Any person failing to comply with the terms of such notice shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to five thousand rupees and if he fails to comply with the terms of such notice after the first day of his failure so to do, with a further fine which may extend to two hundred rupees for every such day after the first.

303. Power of Commissioner to direct removal of person from building in which works are unlawfully carried on or which are unlawfully occupied-

(1) If any person contravenes any provision of sub-section(4) of section 301 or section 302 or disobeys any direction of the Commissioner made there under, the Commissioner after giving twenty-four hours notice shall direct all persons engaged in any capacity in the work of erecting or re-erecting the building in question or part thereof or constructing or re-constructing any projecting portion thereof or occupying or using such building or part thereof to remove themselves and shall take such measures as will prevent any one of such persons from again entering into or remaining upon such building or part thereof except with his permission:

Provided that any person occupying or using such building or part thereof either as tenant or as owner in contravention of sub-section (4) of section 301 shall not be directed to remove himself unless he has been served by the Commissioner with one week's notice in writing requiring to him vacate:

Provided further that if in the opinion of the Commissioner there is imminent danger to human life, the Commissioner may require such building or part thereof to be vacated immediately.

(2) The Commissioner shall, on the application of any person who has vacated any premises in pursuance of a notice under sub- section (1) , re-instate such person in the premises on the withdrawal of such notice, unless it is in his opinion impracticable to restore substantially the same terms of occupation by reason of any structural alteration or demolition.

(3) All expenditure incurred in the enforcement of the provisions of this section may be recovered from the person offending.

304. Erection and use of temporary building to be approved by Commissioner.-

(1) No building shall be erected for a temporary purpose without the sanction of the Chief Executive Officer, or otherwise than in accordance with any byelaws made in this behalf under this Act.

(2) If any building erected for a temporary purpose is not used strictly for such purpose and in accordance with any byelaws made under this Act or is erected without the sanction of the Chief Executive Officer, the building may be demolished by the Chief Executive Officer at the expenses of the owner thereof, whether he is prosecuted under this Act or not.

305. Power to regulate line of buildings.-

(1) If any part of a building projects beyond the regular line of a public street, either as existing or as determined for the future or beyond the front of immediately adjoining buildings the Corporation may-

(a) if the projecting part is a verandah, step or some other structure external to the main building, then at any time, or

(b) if the projecting part is not such external structure as aforesaid, then whenever the greater portion of such building or when ever any material portion of such projecting part has been taken down or burned down or has fallen down.

require by notice either that the part of some portion of the part projecting beyond the regular line or beyond the front of the immediate adjoining building, shall be removed, or that such building when being rebuilt shall be set back to or towards the said line or front; and the portion of land added to the street by such setting back or removal shall henceforth be deemed to be part of the public street and shall vest in the Corporation.

Provided that the Corporation shall make reasonable compensation to the owner for any danger or loss he may sustain in consequence of his building or any part thereof being set back.

(2) The Corporation may, on such terms as it thinks fit, allow any building to be set forward for the improvement of the line of the street.

306. Compensation.-

(1) No compensation shall be claimable by an owner for any damage which he may sustain in consequence of the prohibition of the erection of any building.

(2) The Corporation shall make reasonable compensation to the owner for damage or loss which he may sustain in consequence of the prohibition of the re-erection of any building or part of a building except in so far as the prohibition is necessary under any rule or byelaw:

Provided that the Corporation shall make full compensation to the owner for any damage he may sustain in consequence of his building or any part thereof being set back unless for a period of three years or more immediately preceding such notice the building has by reason of its being in a ruinous or dangerous condition become unfit for human habitation or unless an order of prohibition issued under section 286 has been and still is in force in respect of such building.

(3) The Corporation shall make reasonable compensation to the owner for any damage or loss which he may sustain consequence of the inclusion of his land in a public street but in assessing such compensation, regard shall be had to the benefits accruing to that owner from the development of the land belonging to him and affected by such street.

307. Power to require, removal or alteration of work not in conformity with byelaws or any scheme or any other requirement.-

(1) If any building is erected or re-erected in contravention of any town planning scheme mentioned under section 291 or of any building byelaws made under section 427, the Commissioner without prejudice to his right to take proceedings for a fine in respect of the contravention, may by notice require the owner either to pull down or remove the work or, if he so elects, to effect such alterations therein as may be necessary to make it comply with the said scheme or byelaws.

(2) If a building is erected or re-erected-

- (a) without any sanction as required by section 293(1) or
- (b) when sanction has been refused, or
- (c) in contravention of the terms of any sanction granted, or
- (d) when sanction has lapsed under section 300.

the Commissioner, unless he deems it necessary to take proceedings in respect of such building or work under section 294, shall-

(a) by written notice, require the person who is erecting such building or executing such work or has erected such building or executed such work on or before such day as shall be specified in such notice, by a statement in writing subscribed by him or by an agent duly authorised by him in that behalf and addressed to the Chief Executive Officer, to show sufficient cause why such building or work shall not be removed, altered or pulled down, or;

(b) shall require the said person on such day and at such time and place as shall be specified in such notice to attend personally or by an agent duly authorized by him in that behalf, and show sufficient cause why such building or work shall not be removed, altered or pulled down.

(3) If such person shall fail to show sufficient cause, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, why such building or work shall not be removed, altered or pulled down, the Commissioner may remove, alter or pull down the building or work and the expenses thereof shall be paid by the person.

(4) If the plans are approved by the Commissioner and the approval is communicated to the person intending to build the house or if the plans are rejected by the Commissioner but no notice of their rejection is given to person intending to build the house within the prescribed period, it shall not be open to the Commissioner to give a notice under sub-section (1) and (4) on the ground that the building is erected or re-erected in contravention of any scheme or byelaws or any other requirements under the chapter.

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect then right of the Corporation or any other person to apply to the District Court for an injunction for the removal or alteration of any building on the ground that it contravenes any provision of this Act or the byelaws made thereunder, but if the building is one in respect of which plans have been deposited and the plan s have been passed by the Commissioner, or notice that they have been rejected has not been given within the prescribed period after the deposit thereof, and if the work has been executed in accordance with the plans, the District Court on granting and injunction shall have power to order the Commissioner to pay to the owner of the work such compensation as the District Court thinks just, but before making any such order the District Court cause the Commissioner if not a party to be joined as a party to the proceedings.

308. Buildings or works commenced contrary to Act may be cut into and laid open for purpose of Inspection.-

(1) If there shall be reasonable ground for suspecting that in the erection of any such building or in the execution of any such work as is referred to in Section 307 anything has been done, contrary to any provision of this Act or of any rule or byelaw to be done has been omitted to be done; and if, on inspecting such building or work, it is found that the same has been completed or is too far advanced to permit of any such fact being ascertained, the Commissioner may, with the approval of the Mayor-in-Council by a written notice require the person who has erected such building or executed such work or is erecting such building or executing such work to cause so much of the building as prevents any such fact being ascertained to be cut into, laid open or pulled down to a sufficient extent to permit of the same being ascertained.

(2) If it shall thereupon be found that in the erection of such building or the execution of such work nothing has been done contrary to any provision of this Act, or of any rule or byelaw, and that nothing required by any such provision, rule or bylaw to be done has been omitted to be done, compensation shall be paid by the Commissioner to the person aforesaid for the damage and loss incurred by cutting into, laying open or pulling down the building or work.

308-A. Compounding of offences of construction of buildings with permission-

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other Act, for the time being in force or any rules or byelaws made there under, the offence of constructing buildings without permission or contrary to the permission granted, may be compounded, if-

- (a) Such construction does not affect the regular building line
- (b) the area of unauthorized construction made in the marginal open spaces or in excess of the prescribed floor area Ratio does not exceed ten percent of the prescribed floor area Ratio.
- (c) area notified by the State Government as a hill station or a place of Tourist importance or sensitive/fragile from the point of ecology, or
- (d) area specified for parking of vehicles; or
- (e) area coming within the Road or area affecting alignment of Public Roads; or
- (f) area specified for tanks (Talab);
- (g) area of construction affecting regular building line:

Provided that in compounding the cases, fees shall be charged, as under in respect of the area of unauthorized construction on the basis of the rate of sale of land determined by the Collector of stamps for the area concerned.

(a) If the construction relates to a plot of one hundred square meter but does not exceed two hundred fifty square meter, thirty percent of the rate of sale in respect of non-residential houses/buildings.

(b) If the construction relates to a plot of one hundred square meter but does not exceed two hundred square meter, twenty per cent of the rate of sale in respect of residential building and thirty per cent of the rate of sale in respect of non-residential buildings.

(c) If the construction relates to a plot exceeding two hundred square meter but does not exceed three hundred fifty square meter, thirty per cent of the rate of sale in respect of residential building and forty five per cent of the rate of sale in respect of non-residential buildings.

(d) If the construction relates to a plot exceeding three hundred fifty square meter, forty per cent of the rate of sale in respect of residential building and sixty per cent of the rate of sale in respect of non-residential buildings:

Provided further that the compounding shall be made in case of residential construction by the Commissioner and in case of non-residential construction with the permission of the Mayor-in-Council .

Provided also that nothing contained in this section shall apply to any person who does not have any right over the building or the land on which the construction has been made.

308-B. Relaxation in Compounding the unauthorized construction.-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 308-A or any other provisions of this Act or any other law for the time being in force , the Commissioner may, on the application made in this behalf by order, compound the cases involving deviations from the approved plan or map, or construction made without permission by collecting compounding fee at such rate as may be determined by the State Government.

(2) The application under sub-section (1) shall be made within 90 days from the date of the commencement of the Madhya Pradesh Nagarplaik Vidhi (Sanshodhan) Adhiniyam, 2003 and the Commissioner shall, after making such enquiry as he deems fit decide all applications received under sub-section (1) within six months from the date of receipt. If the Commissioner fails to decide the applications received under sub-section (1) within the aforesaid period he will be deemed to be guilty of dereliction of duty and liable for disciplinary action.

(3) Upon the issue of the order under sub-section (1), permission shall be deemed to have been granted under this Act and the Madhya Pradesh Nagar Tatha Gram Nivesh Adhiniyam, 1973 and the rules and byelaws made thereunder.

(4) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall apply to any application by any person who does not have any right over the building or the land on which the construction has been made or to any application in respect of any building erected or constructed in any of the following areas:-

- (i) area notified by the State Government as a hill station or place of Tourist importance or as sensitive/fragile from the point of ecology;
- (ii) area specified for parking of vehicles;
- (iii) area coming within the Road or area affecting alignment of Public Roads;
- (iv) area specified for tanks (Talab):

Provided that where the construction has been made in the area specified for tanks(talab) is more than ten years old, the case may be compounded.

(v) area of construction affecting regular building line.

(vi) area of construction coming within thirty metres or such further distance from the river bank as may be specified in the master plan of the concerned town;

(vii) area of any nallah and water stream.

Chapter XXV

DANGEROUS AND INSANITARY BUILDING

309. Provisions regarding buildings unfit for human habitation.-

(1) If it appears to the Commissioner that any building intended or used for human habitation or human occupation for any purpose whatsoever is unfit for such habitation or occupation, he shall give notice in writing to the occupier or to the owner, if the building is not occupied, stating that the building is unfit and signifying his intention to prohibit the further use of such building for such purposes, and calling upon the occupier or owner to state in writing his objections to such prohibition within thirty days from the receipt of the notice. If no objection is stated by such occupier or owner within the said period, or if the objection stated appears to the Commissioner to be insufficient or not well founded, he may, with the previous approval of the Mayor-in-Council prohibit by an order in writing the further use of such building for human habitation or occupation and shall affix a notice to that effect on a conspicuous part of such building.

(2) Notice of such prohibition shall be served upon the owner of any building affected thereby and also upon every occupier or user thereof, specifying a period, not being less than fourteen days from the date of service of such notice, within which every such person shall remove himself and his removable property from the said building; and if within the period so specified any such person fails to remove himself and his property as aforesaid, the Commissioner and in accordance may cause him and his property to be removed and may recover from him the cost of such removal.

(3) When a building has been vacated by removal under sub-section (2), the Commissioner shall affix a notice to the building in the manner prescribed by byelaws and no person except with the permission in writing of the Commissioner and in accordance with the terms and conditions of such permission, shall without sufficient cause enter into or remain in such building.

(4) Wherever the Commissioner is of opinion that any building intended or used for human habitation is unfit for such habitation or occupation and the Commissioner considers that it can be rendered fit for human habitation or occupation by structural alterations or repairs, he may by a notice in writing call upon the owner to execute within a period of six months from the date of receipt of such notice, such structural alterations or repairs as he deems necessary, and if at the expiry of the aforesaid period such alterations or repairs have not been executed to his satisfaction, he shall with previous approval issue to the owner a notice in writing ordering the demolition of such building within a period of thirty days from the receipt of the notice or such longer period as the Commissioner may specify.

(5) Whenever the Commissioner is of the opinion that the building cannot be rendered fit for human habitation or occupation, he may, with the previous approval of the Mayor-in-Council, by a notice in writing call upon the owner to demolish it within a period of thirty days from the receipt of such notice or such longer period as the Commissioner may specify.

(6) If at the expiry of the said period an order to demolish a building given under sub-section (4) or sub-section (5) has not been complied with, the Commissioner may with the previous approval of the Mayor-in-Council, direct, by an order in writing, the demolition thereof by any municipal officer, servant or contractor. The materials of the building so demolished shall thereupon be sold by public auction and the proceeds of the sale shall be made over to the owner after deducting the cost of demolition and sale. If the amount realized is not sufficient to cover the cost of the demolition and sale, the balance, if any shall be recovered from the owner:

Provided that before such an order is given the owner of the building shall be given an opportunity of appearing before the Mayor-in-Council in person or by agent, and of showing cause why such order should not be given.

(7) any person aggrieved by the decision of the Commissioner under sub-sections (4), (5) or (6) may within a period of one month, appeal to the District Court.

(8) If any building in respect of which an order under this section has been given is held under a lease, the lease shall be avoidable at the option of the lessee with effect from the date on which the lessee has to remove himself and his property.

310. Removal of buildings in dangerous state.-

(1) If, in the opinion of the Commissioner, any building, wall, structure including under this expression any building, wall, parapet, pavement, floor, steps, railings, door or window frames or shutters or roof or other structure and anything affixed to or projecting from or resting on any building, wall, parapet or other structure, or any tree standing thereon is in dangerous state, the Commissioner may by a notice in writing, require the occupier or owner thereof forthwith either to demolish or remove the building, wall, structure or any such tree or cause such repairs to be made there to as he considers necessary for the public safety; and if the danger appears to him to be imminent, he may forthwith take such steps as may be required to avert such danger, including the forcible removal without notice from such building of all the occupiers thereof and their property.

(2) Any expenses incurred by the Commissioner under sub-section (1) shall be paid by the owner of the building, wall, structure, or anything affixed thereto.

(3) Except with the permission in writing of the Commissioner no person shall without sufficient cause enter into or remain in any building from which the occupier and his property has been removed under sub-section (1).

311. Abandoned or unoccupied premises.-

(1) If it appears to the Commissioner that any building or structure has been abandoned or is unoccupied and has become a resort of disorderly person or is by reason of its condition seriously detrimental to the amenities of the neighbourhood, the Commissioner may give a written notice to the owner of such building or structure if he is known and found to be a resident within the limits of the Municipality, or to any person who is known or believed to claim to be owner, if such person is resident within the limits of the Corporation and shall also affix a copy of the notice on some conspicuous part of the building or structure requiring all persons having any right or interest therein to take such order with the said building or structure as may, in the opinion of the Commissioner, be necessary to prevent the same from being resorted to as aforesaid or from being seriously detrimental to the amenities of the neighbourhood.

312. Reclamation of low-lying sites.-

(1) If for any reason it appears to the Commissioner that the level of the site on which it is proposed to erect or re-erect a building is likely to become insanitary or likely to be a source of nuisance, he shall give to the owner of the site proposed to be built upon, a notice in writing, calling upon him to show cause in writing within thirty days after the receipt of such notice why the site should not be reclaimed with such materials and raised to such height and within such period not being less than six months from the date of the notice, as the Commissioner thinks fit and in the notice the Commissioner shall specify the cost at which the site can be reclaimed and raised by municipal agency if the owner desires to employ that agency.

(2) No objection is stated within such period, as aforesaid, or if any objection which is stated appears to the Commissioner to be insufficient or not well founded, he may by a notice in writing, direct such owner or occupier-

(a) to reclaim and raise the site within the specified period; or

(b) within thirty days after the receipt of the said notice to pay to the Commissioner the estimated cost of reclaiming and raising the site by municipal agency.

(3) in any case in which the estimated cost of the reclamation has not been paid to the Commissioner, and the owner still proposes to erect the building and fails to commence the reclamation within three months of the receipt of the notice under sub-section (2), or if fails to raise the site to the specified height with the specified materials within the specified period, the Commissioner may recover from him the estimated cost as stated in the notice issued under sub-section (1), or so much thereof as the Commissioner considers necessary to complete the work, and shall carry out and complete the work.

312-A. Power to prohibit re-erection of building on in accessible sites.-

(1) If any building so situated as to be inaccessible to a fire-engine or as to cause obstruction to a fire-engine from reaching other buildings is demolished or destroyed by fire or otherwise, the Commissioner may by a notice in writing addressed to the owner of the building demolished or destroyed as aforesaid, direct that no building shall be erected which would be in accessible to a fire-engine or which would cause obstruction to a fire-engine from reaching other buildings.

(2) No person shall erect or re-erect any building in contravention of a notice under sub-section (1).

313. Removal of building materials from any premises in certain cases.-

If it appears to the Commissioner that any stone, rafters, building materials or debris of building materials are stored or collected in or upon any premises in such quantity or bulk or in such a way as to constitute a harbourage or breeding place for rats or other vermin or is otherwise a source of danger or nuisance to the occupiers of the said premises or to persons residing in the neighbourhood thereof, the Commissioner may by a written notice require the owner of such premises, or the owner of the materials or debris so stored or collected therein, to remove or dispose of the same or to take such order with the same as may, in the opinion of the Commissioner be necessary or expedient to abate the nuisance or prevent a recurrence thereof.

314. Power of Commissioner to call for statement of accommodation.-

(1) The owner or occupier of a building shall, within a period of seven days of the receipt of a written notice from the Chief Executive Officer, supply such information with respect to such building or its occupants as the Corporation may prescribe by byelaws.

(2) The occupier of a building occupied as a separate tenement shall on like notice and within the like period supply such information as may be prescribed with respect to such building as aforesaid which is in his occupation.

315. Cleaning and disinfecting of buildings.-

- (1) Should be the owner, part-owner, or occupier of any building suffer the same to be in a filthy or unwholesome state, the Commissioner may by a notice require him within twenty four hours to cleanse the same or otherwise put it in a proper state and thereafter to keep it in a clean and proper state and if it appears to be necessary for sanitary purposes so to do, may, at any time by a notice, direct the occupier of any building to lime wash or otherwise cleanse the said building inside and outside in the manner and within a period to be specified in the notice.
- (2) If the Commissioner is of the opinion that the cleansing or disinfecting of a building or any part, thereof, or of any article therein, which is likely to retain infection, will tend to prevent or check the spread of any disease, he may, by a notice require the owner or occupier to cleanse or disinfect the same in the manner and within the period to be specified in the notice.

316. Building to include part of a building for purposes of this chapter. -

For the purposes of this chapter the expression 'building' includes a part of a building.

Chapter XXVI

STREETS PUBLIC STREETS

317.Closing of public streets.-

(1) The Corporation may with the previous sanction of the Government permanently close the whole or any part of a public street:

Provided that no such street or part thereof shall be closed unless for a period of not less than one month before the date of the meeting of the Corporation at which the matter is to be decided, a notice has been posted in the street or part thereof which it is proposed to close informing the residents of the proposal and until any objections to the proposal made in writing at any time before the day of the said meeting have been received and considered by the Corporation.

(2) When any public street or part thereof is permanently closed under sub-section (1), the site of such street, or of the part thereof which has been closed may be disposed of, subject to the provisions of section 80 as land belonging to the Corporation.

317-A. Laying Railways, tramways or electrical telephone poles.-

(1) Without the previous permission in writing of the Commissioner no person shall lay on under, or above any public street any railway or tramway or erect or lay any poles or cables or the like, or operate the same.

(2) The Commissioner shall give such permission in accordance with any general or special rules which may be made by Government after considering any representation made by the Corporation.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect any provision of the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885 (13 of 1885), the Indian Tramways Act, 1886 (11 of 1886), the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (9 of 1890), or the Indian Electricity Act, 1910 (IX of 1910).

318.Prohibition of projection upon streets.-

(1) Except with the previous permission of the Commissioner and in accordance with such terms and conditions, including the payment of rent, as he may impose, no person shall erect, add to, set up or place against or in front of any premises any structure or fixture or obstruction which will-

(a) overhang or project into or encroach upon or in any way obstruct the passage of the public along any street; or

(b) project into or encroach upon or cover any drain or open channel in any street so as to interfere in any way with the use or proper working of such drain or channel or to impede the inspection or cleansing thereof.

(2) The Commissioner may by written notice, require the owner or occupier of any premises to take such order as he may direct with any structure, fixture, or covering which has been erected, set up or placed against or in front of the said premises in contravention of this section.

(3) Any rent payable under this section shall be recoverable under Chapter XII of this Act.

319. Procedure to be followed by Commissioner on conviction of a person under Section 434. ----

When any person has been convicted under section 434, the Commissioner may -

- a. by a notice, require such person to remove the overhanging structure, encroachment or obstruction and where necessary, to restore the street, drain or channel to the condition it was in before the encroachment ; and
- b. If the requirement is not complied with within the time fixed in the notice, have the required act done by his subordinate officers at the expenses of such person and recover the cost of required act from such person as an arrear of tax under chapter XII of this Act.

320. Restriction on powers of municipal authorities in relation to streets-

(1) The Corporation or the Commissioner shall not in respect of any street vested in the Government grant permission to do any act the doing of which without the permission of the Corporation or the Commissioner is punishable under this Act or the rules or byelaws made there under except with the previous sanction of the Government which may accord its sanction either generally or in particular case.

(2) The Corporation or the Commissioner shall, if so required by the Government exercise in respect of such streets, all or any of the powers conferred by this Act upon the Corporation or the Commissioner, as the case may be.

321. Footings of buildings not to establish title to land belonging to Government or vesting in Corporation.-

No title to any land belonging to or vested in the Government or the Corporation shall be deemed to have been acquired by reason only that the footing of the foundations of any building, wall or other structure project or have projected below the surface of such land.

Obstruction in Street

322. Prohibition of obstruction in streets-

(1) No person shall, except with the written permission of the Commissioner granted in this behalf and in accordance with such conditions including the payment of rent or fee, as he may impose either generally or specially in this behalf-

(a) erect or setup any wall, fence, rail, post, step, booth or other structure whether fixed or movable or whether of a permanent or temporary nature, or any fixture in or upon any street so as to form an obstruction to, or an encroachment upon, or a projection over, or to occupy any portion of such street, channel, drain, well or tank.

(b) deposit upon any street or upon channel, drain or well in any street or upon any public, place any stall, chair, bench, box, ladder, bale or other thing whatsoever, so as to form an obstruction there to or encroachment thereon.

(2) Whoever contravenes any provision of sub-section (1) shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both and with further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day on which such contravention continues after the date of first conviction for such offence.

(3) Without prejudice to the action under sub-section (2), the Commissioner, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, may after giving such notice as may be prescribed, cause to be removed any obstruction or encroachment as described in clause (a) and (b) of sub-section (1).

(4) Any of the things caused to be removed by the Commissioner under sub-section (3) shall, unless the owner thereof turns up to take back such things and pays to the Commissioner the charges for the removal and storage of such things, be disposed of by the Chief Executive Officer by public auction or in such other manner and within such time as the Commissioner thinks fit.

(5) The Police Officer shall not investigate into the offence under this Section except on a report made in writing in this behalf by the Commissioner.

322-A. Maintenance of record and submission of report of encroachment-

(1) Every officer incharge of a Ward Committee or such other officer or a servant to whom the duties have been assigned to maintain record of open land or public places belonging to the Corporation shall be responsible to submit reports of occurrence of any encroachment.

(2) The Commissioner on receipt of report under sub-section (1) shall take action to remove such encroachment as soon as possible.

(3) If the officer or servant incharge responsible to keep watch over the encroachments, fails to inform the Commissioner within one month from the date of occurrence of encroachment, such officer or servant shall be deemed to be guilty of dereliction of his duties and disciplinary action shall be taken against such officer or servant.

(4) The Commissioner shall inform the Mayor-in-Council every month about the states of encroachment on open land or public places belonging to the Corporation the action taken or proposed to be taken in respect of them and the name of officers and servants found guilty of dereliction of duties as envisaged under sub-section (3).

323. Streets not to be opened or broken up and building materials not to be deposited there in without permission.-

(1) Except in such cases as the Government may by general or special order exempt from the operation of this Section, no person shall, except with the permission of the Commissioner and in accordance with such terms and conditions, including payment of rent or otherwise, as the Commissioner may impose either generally or in each special case-

(a) open, break up, displace, take up or make any alteration in or cause any injury to, the soil or pavement, or any wall, fence, post, chain or other material or thing forming part of any street or in any open space vested in the Corporation or

(b) deposit any building material in any street or in any person space vested in the Corporation; or

(c) set up in any street or in any open space vested in the Municipality any scaffold or any temporary erection for the purpose of any work whatever, or any posts, bars, rails boards or other things, by way of enclosure, for the purpose of making mortar or depositing bricks, lime, rubbish or other materials.

(2) Any permission granted under clause (b) or (c) of sub-section (1) shall be terminable at the discretion of the Commissioner on his giving not less than twenty four hours written notice of the termination thereof to the person to whom such permission was granted.

(3) The Commissioner without prejudice to the penalty that may be imposed may, without notice—

(a) cause the soil or pavement or any wall, fence, post, channel or other material forming part of the street to be restored to the condition it was in before any opening or breaking up or displacement, or alteration or damage made or done without the permission of the authority specified in sub-section (1);

(b) cause to be removed any building materials, any scaffold or any temporary erection, or any posts, bars, rails, boards or other things by way of enclosure, which have been deposited or set up in any street or in any open space vested in the Corporation without any permission of the authority specified in sub-section (1) or which, having been deposited or set up with such permission, have not been removed within the period specified in the notice issued under sub-section (2) and recover the costs of such restoration or removal from the offender.

324. Ground floor doors, etc. not to open onwards on streets.-

If any door gate, bar or window on the ground floor of any premises opens outwards upon a street or upon any land required for the improvement of a street in such a manner as, in the opinion of the Commissioner, to obstruct the safe or convenient passage of the public along such street, the Commissioner may at any time by a written notice require the owner of the said door, gate, bar or window altered so as not to open outwards.

325. Power to require removal of old projections.-

- (i) If any such structure, fixture or covering as is described in this section has already been erected, set up or placed against or in front of any premises, the Chief Executive Officer may give notice under sub-section (2) of this section to the owner of the said premises.
- (ii) If the owner or occupier of the building proves that any such structure, fixture or covering was authorized by any law previously in force or that it was erected with the consent of any Municipality shall, after such structures have been removed, make reasonable compensation to every person who suffers damage by the removal or alteration thereof.

Private Streets

326. Notice to be given to Commissioner of intention to lay out lands for building and for private streets.-

(1) Every person who intends-

- (a) to sell or let or lease any land subject to a covenant or agreement on the part of a purchaser or lessee to erect buildings thereon;
- (b) to divide land whether unbuilt or partly built into building plots;
- (c) to use any land or a portion thereof or permit the same to be used for building purposes; or
- (d) to make or lay out a private street, whether it is intended to allow the public a right of passage or access over such street or not;

shall give written notice of his intention to the Commissioner and shall along with such notice, submit plan and sanction showing the situation and boundaries of such building, land and the site of the private street, if any, and also the situation and boundaries of all other lands of such person of which such building, land or site forms a part and the intended development, laying out and plotting of such building land including the dimensions and area of each building plot and also the intended level, direction, width, means of drainage, paving, metalling and lighting of such private streets, the provisions, for planting and rearing of trees beside such private street, and the height and means of drainage and ventilation of the building or buildings proposed to be erected on the land, if any building when erected will not abut on a street than already existing or then intended to be made as aforesaid, the means of access from and to such building and the manner of paving, metalling, draining and lighting of such means of access.

(2) Commissioner may call for further particular.- If any notice under sub-section (1) does not supply all the information which the Commissioner deems necessary to enable him to deal satisfactorily with the case or if any such notice given for any of, or all the purposes mentioned in clauses (a), (b), (c) of sub-section (1) does not contain any proposal or intention to make or lay out a private street, he may, at any time within thirty days after receipt of the said notice, by written notice require the person who gave the said notice-

(a) to furnish the required information together with all or any of the documents specified in the byelaws; or

(b) to revise any or all the schemes submitted under the said clause (a), (b) or (c) so as to provide for the making or laying out of a private street or streets of such width or widths as he may specify in addition to or in substitution of any means of excess proposed to be provided in such scheme or schemes and to furnish such further information and documents relating to the revised scheme or schemes as he may specify.

327. Level of the street to be determined by Commissioner.-

The level, direction, width, and means or drainage of every new street and the height and means of drainage of the buildings to be erected on each side thereof shall be fixed and determined by the Commissioner.

328. New streets not to be made and buildings on either side thereof not to be erected except in accordance with the direction of Commissioner.-

(1) No person shall make or lay out any new street or erect any building on either side thereof otherwise than in accordance with the direction of the Commissioner under section 327.

(2) If any such new street be made or laid out, or if any building on either side of any such street be erected by any person in contravention of this section, the Commissioner may, by a written notice require the said person to make a statement in writing subscribed by him in that behalf and addressed to the Commissioner to show cause on or before such date as may be specified in such notice why such street or building should not be altered to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, or if that is impracticable, why the same should not be demolished or removed; or may require the said person on such day and at such time and place as may be specified in such notice to appear before the Commissioner, as the case may be, either personally or by an agent and to show cause as aforesaid.

(3) If such person fails to show sufficient cause as aforesaid, the Commissioner may cause the street or building to be so altered or to be demolished or removed and may recover the expenses thereof from the said person.

329. Levelling, metalling etc. of streets.-

(1) If any street be not leveled, paved, lighted, sewered, drained, channeled or flagged to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, he may, with the approval of the Mayor-in-Council by a written notice, require the owner or owners of the street and the owners of the several premises fronting or adjoining the said street, or abutting thereon, or to which access is obtained through such street, or which will benefit by works executed under this section, to contribute within thirty days from the date of receipt of notice in such proportions as he may direct to the cost of leveling, metalling, tarring or asphaltting, paving, lighting, sewerage draining or flagging the same.

(2) the notice shall show,-

(a) the nature of the intended works;

(b) the estimated expenses thereof including five percent for contingencies;

(c) the proportion of the expenses payable by each owner.

(3) Any person dissatisfied with the notice of the Commissioner calling upon him to contribute towards the cost may appeal to the Revenue Commissioner and the decision of the Revenue Commissioner thereon shall be final.

(4) every such appeal shall be presented within thirty days from the date of the receipt of the notice issued under sub-section(1) and shall be accompanied by a copy of the said notice subject to order that may be passed in appeal, the notice issued under sub-section (1) shall be final.

(5) The provisions of Parts II and III of the Limitation Act, 1963 (No, 36 of 1963) relating to appeals shall apply to every appeal preferred under this section.

(6) If the person on whom a notice is served under sub-section (1) does not within thirty days of the receipt of such notice,-

(a) pay the sum demanded in the notice, or

(b) show cause to the satisfaction of the Chief Executive Officer why he should not pay the same, or

(c) prefer an appeal in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3), such sum will all cost of recovery may be recovered under a warrant in the form prescribed by byelaws signed by the Commissioner-

(i) by distress and sale of the movable property belonging to such person;

(ii) by attachment and sale of immovable property belonging to him:

Provided that where any precautionary or other measures in respect of any such property have been taken by the Government for the recovery of any sum claimed by it, no proceedings shall be taken continued under this section, in respect of such property until the Government claim has been paid off.

(7) Where the property referred to in sub-section (6) is within the limits of the Corporation, the warrant shall be addressed to an officer of the Corporation and where the property is outside the limits of the Corporation to the Collector of the district concerned:

Provided that the officer to whom the warrant is addressed may endorse such warrant to a subordinate officer.

(8) For every warrant issued under sub-section (6) fee shall be charged at the rates specified in the byelaws and the said fee shall be included in the costs of recovery.

(9) On recovery of the full amount of the estimated expenses the Commissioner shall carry out the work with all convenient speed.

(10) If the expenditure involved is more than the amount recovered, the Corporation shall have powers to recover the difference in the same manner in which the original amount was recovered; but if the actual cost of the work as finally completed is less than the estimated cost, the surplus shall be refunded to the contributors proportionately to their contribution in all cases where a refund would amount to not less than fifty rupees.

Conversion of streets into public streets

330. Power to declare streets, when metalled, etc. public streets.-

(1) When any street has been leveled, metalled, tarred or asphalted, paved, made good, lighted, drained, channeled and flagged to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, he shall, if so required by the persons liable for the greater part of the expenditure on such, street by notice put up in any part of such street, declare the same to be a public street. The said street shall thereupon become a public street.

(2) Every person for the time being in charge of or employed in such market, building, shop, stall or place shall if so requested by the person making such inspection, produce for such inspection and comparison all instruments for weighting, weights and measures kept there in.

Chapter VIII
Chapter XXXIV

GENERAL PROVISIONS FOR THE CARRYING OF MUNICIPAL ADMINISTRATION PROCEDURE

366. Licences and permissions.-

- (1) Whenever it is prescribed by or under this Act that the permission of the Commissioner is necessary for the doing of any act, such permission shall, unless it is otherwise expressly provided, be in writing.
- (2) Every license and written permission granted under this Act or under any rule or byelaw made there under, shall be signed by the Commissioner and shall specify-
 - (a) the date of the grant thereof;
 - (b) the purpose and the period, if any, for which it is granted;
 - (c) the restrictions and conditions, if any, subject to which it is granted;
 - (d) the name of the person to whom it is granted;
 - (e) the tax or fee, if any, paid for the licence or written permission;
 - (f) the date by which an application for the renewal of the same may be made
- (3) Except when it is otherwise expressly provided in this Act or in any rule or bye law made there under, a fee for every such licence or written permission may be charged at such rates as may be fixed by the Corporation and such fee shall be payable by the person to whom the licence is granted.
- (4) Every person to whom a licence or permission has been granted shall produce it at all reasonable hours of inspection if required by the Commissioner or any officer authorized by him in this behalf.
- (5) Any licence or written permission granted under this Act, or under any rule or byelaw made there under, may at any time be suspended or revoked, by the Chief Municipal Officer if any of its restrictions or conditions is infringed or evaded by the grantee, or if the grantee is convicted of a breach of any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule or byelaw made there under in any matter to which such licence or permission relates.
- (6) When any such licence or written permission is suspended or revoked or when the period for which the same was granted has expired, the grantee shall, for all purposes of this Act or of any rule or byelaw made there under, be deemed to be without a licence or written permission until such time, whether within the said period or otherwise, as the authority granting the same may see fit to cancel the order suspending or revoking the licence or written permission or until the licence or written permission is renewed, as the case may be.
- (7) Pending the receipt of orders on his application made on or before the date prescribed by byelaws for application for renewal, an applicant shall be entitled to act as if it has been renewed.
- (8) The acceptance by or on behalf of the Municipality of the fee for a licence or permission shall not entitle the person paying the fee to the licence or permission.
- (9) Every application for a licence or permit shall be addressed to the Chief Municipal Officer.
- (10) Save in cases falling under section--- and ----, if the orders of the Chief Executive Officer on an application for a licence or permission which complies with the provisions of the foregoing sub-section are not communicated to the applicant within six weeks from the date of receipt of the application by the Chief Municipal Officer the applicant may act as if the licence or permit had been granted for the year or for such shorter period as is mentioned in the application.

(11). The rate of the licence and permission fees shall be revised once in every three years.

Evidence

367. Proof of consent etc., of municipal authorities or municipal officers.-

Whenever under this Act or any rule or byelaw made there under, the doing or the omitting to do anything or the validity of anything depends upon the approval, sanction, consent, concurrence, declaration, opinion or satisfaction of-

- (a) the Corporation, or the Mayor-in Council or the Commissioner, or
- (b) of any municipal officer;

a written document purporting to have been signed in case-(a) by the Commissioner, and in case-(b) by the said municipal officer, purporting to convey or set forth such approval, sanction, consent, concurrence, declaration, opinion or satisfaction shall be prima facie evidence thereof.

Signature and service of notice, etc.

368. Signature on notices, etc. may be stamped.-

- (1) Every licence, written permission, notice, bill, schedule, summons, warrant or other document which is required by this Act or by any rule or byelaw made there under to bear the signature of any municipal officer, shall be deemed to be properly signed if it bears a facsimile of the signature of such municipal officer stamped there upon.
- (2) Nothing in subsection, (1) shall be deemed to apply to a cheque drawn upon the municipal fund or to any deed of contract.

369. Service of notice, etc., how to be effected on owner or occupier of premises.-

When notice, bill, schedule, summons or other document is required by this Act or any rule or byelaw made there under to be served upon or issued or presented to any person as owner or occupier of any land or building, in so far as it concerns that land or building, the service, or issue or presentation thereof shall be effected either-

- (a) by giving or tendering to any person whose name has been entered in the assessment list as the owners, or one of the owners of the property concerned, or to the occupier thereof; or
- (b) if the owner or occupier or no one of the owners or occupiers is found, by giving or tendering the said notice, bill, schedule, summons or other document to some adult member or servant of the family of the owner or occupier; or of any of the owners or occupiers; or
- (c) by causing the said notice, bill, schedule, summons or other document to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the land or building to which the document relates; or
- (d) by delivering at some post office, the said notice, bill, schedule, summons or other document under cover addressed by the description of the owner or occupier of----- (here describing the property concerned) without further name or description of then person concerned, and obtaining a certificate of posting the same from the post office; or
- (e) by any one or more of these methods.

370. Service of notice, etc., how to be effected on any person otherwise than as owner or occupier of premises.-

When a notice, bill schedule, summons or other document is required by this Act or by any rule or byelaw made there under, to be served upon or issued or presented to any person, otherwise than as owner or occupier of any land or building, such service, issue or presentation shall be effected-

- (a) by delivering at some post office the said notice, bill, schedule, summons or other such documents under cover bearing the address of the person concerned and obtaining therefor a certificate of posting, or
- (b) by giving or tendering to such person the said notice, bill, schedule, summons or other such documents, or
- (c) by both methods.

370-A. The two preceding sections inapplicable to Court's summons.-

Nothing in the two preceding sections shall apply to any summons issued under this Act by a Court.

371. Public notice how to be made known.-Whenever it is provided by or under this Act that public notice shall or may be given of anything, such public notice shall, in the absence of special provision to the contrary, be in writing under the signature of the Commissioner or of a municipal officer empowered under sub section (4) of section 69 to give the same, and shall be widely made known in the locality to be effected thereby, affixing copy thereof in conspicuous public places within the said locality, or by publishing the same by beat of drum, or by advertisement in the local newspapers, or by two or more of these means and by any other means that the Commissioner shall think fit.

Powers of entry and inspection

372. Power of entry on premises for purposes of inspection, survey or execution of necessary work.-

(1) Any Municipal Officer duly authorized in this behalf by the Commissioner or any Councillor authorized by the Mayor may enter into or upon any premises, with or without assistants or workmen, in order to make any inspection, survey, measurement, valuation or inquiry or execute any work which is authorized by this Act or by any rule or byelaw made there under or which, in his opinion it is necessary or expedient for any of the purposes or in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act or of any such byelaw, to make or execute:

Provided as follows:-

- (a) except when it is in this Act or in any rule or byelaw made there under otherwise expressly provided, no such entry shall be made between sunset and sunrise;
- (b) except when it is in this Act or in any rule or byelaw made there under otherwise expressly provided, no building used as a dwelling house shall be so entered, unless with the consent of the occupier thereof, without giving the said occupier at least six hours' previous notice in writing of the intention to make such entry, and, except where it is inexpedient to mention the purpose thereof;

(c) notwithstanding any power to enter any premises conferred upon municipal officers or councilors by this Act or any rule or byelaw made there under sufficient notice of such entry shall in every instance be given to enable the inmates of any apartment appropriate to women to withdraw to some part of the premises where their privacy may not be disturbed;

(d) due regard shall be had, so far as may be compatible with the exigencies of the purpose for which the entry is made, to the social and religious usages of occupants of the premises entered.

(2) Except when it is in this Act or any rule or byelaw made there under otherwise expressly provided, no claims shall lie against any person for compensation for any damage unavoidably caused by any entry made or by the use of any force necessary for effecting such entry:

Provided that force shall not be used for effecting an entry, unless there is reason to believe that an offence has been or is being committed against some provisions of this Act or any rule or byelaw made there under.

373. Power of entry on lands adjacent to works.-

(1) Any Municipal Officer duly authorized to carry out works may enter upon any land adjoining or within one hundred yards of any works authorized by this Act or by any rule or byelaw made there under and deposit any earth, gravel, sand, lime, bricks, stone or other materials necessary for such works, or for any other purpose connected with the carrying on of such works.

(2) Such Officer shall, before depositing materials under sub-section (1), give the owner or occupier of the land reasonable notice of his intention to make such entry, and of the purpose thereof, and shall, if so required by the owner or occupier, set apart by sufficient fences so much of the land as may be required for the purposes mentioned in the said sub-section.

(3) The municipal officer shall not be bound to make any payment, tender or deposit before entering upon any land under sub-section (1), but shall do as little damage as may be, and the Commissioner shall pay compensation to the owner or occupier of the land for any temporary damage that may be done in consequence of such entry, and shall also pay compensation to the said owner for any permanent damage resulting therefrom.

374. Right of entry into and inspection of premises licensed for any purpose.-

(1) Any Councillor or any Committee authorized by the in that behalf or the Commissioner, or any Municipal Officer authorized by him in that behalf may at any time by day or night and without notice, enter into or upon any place or premises used or intended to be used for any purpose for which any licence or permission is required by or under this Act or any rule or byelaw made there under in order to satisfying himself whether any provision of this Act or any rule or byelaw or any condition of any licence or permission granted or required under this Act or any rule or byelaw made there under is being contravened, and whether any nuisance is being created in or upon such place or premises.

375. Prohibition of obstructing entry.-

No person shall, in any way, obstruct any Committee or Councillor or any Municipal Officer duly authorized in that behalf in making any entry under section 365, 372, 373 or 374 any other municipal officer or any other person accompanying him at his request or acting under his orders for the purpose of such entry.

Enforcement of orders to execute works, etc.

376. Execution of works which any person is required to execute by Commissioner at such person's cost.-

(1) When any requisition order is made under this Act or any rule or byelaw made there under, by written notice issued by the Commissioner or by any municipal officer duly empowered in this behalf, a reasonable period to be determined by the Commissioner shall be prescribed in such notice for carrying such requisition or order into effect.

(2) If, within the period so prescribed, such requisition or order or any portion there of is not complied with, the Commissioner may take such measures, or cause such work to be executed or things to be done, as may, in his opinion, be necessary for giving due effect to the requisition or order so made; and unless it is in this Act or in any rule or byelaw made there under otherwise expressly provided, the expenses thereof shall be paid by the person or any one or more of the persons to whom such requisition or order was addressed.

(3) When a person is required under any provision of this Act or under any rule or byelaw made there under to supply any materials or fittings or to do any work, the Commissioner may, upon the requisition of such person in writing, supply the necessary materials or fittings or cause the necessary work to be done in this behalf:

Provided that the said person shall first deposit as sum sufficient in the opinion of the Commissioner to cover the cost of the said materials, fittings or work.

(4) When a person is required to execute any work under the provisions of this Act or under any rule or byelaw made there under, the Commissioner may, for reasons to be recorded in writing instead of giving him the option of executing it, cause such work to be executed by municipal or other agency under his own supervision, and may recover the expenses incurred there by from the person liable to execute the work:

Provided that the Corporation may, on the advice of the Commissioner, execute the work at the cost of the municipal fund.

Recovery of Expenses

377. Power of Commissioner to accept agreement for payment of expenses in installments.-

(1) When ever under this Act or under any rule or byelaw made there under, the cost of any work executed or of any measure taken or thing done, by or under the order of a municipal authority, any magistrate or any municipal officer empowered in this behalf, is payable by any person, the Commissioner may with the approval of the Mayor-in- Council instead of recovering any such cost in any other manner provided in this Act or in any rule or byelaw made there under, take an agreement from the said person to pay the same in installments of such amount and at such intervals as will secure the payment of the whole amount due, with interest there on at the rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, within a period of not more than five years.

(2) If any installment is not paid on or before the date on which it falls due, the Commissioner may thence forward recover interest on the sum then due at such rate not exceeding nine per centum per annum as he may deem fit.

378. Power to declare certain expenses to be improvement expenses.-

If any cost or expenses removable under this Act have been incurred by the Commissioner under any provision of this Act or any rule or byelaw made there under in respect of, or for the benefit of, any land or building the Commissioner may with the approval of the Corporation declare such costs or expenses to be improvement expenses.

379. Improvement expenses how recoverable and by whom payable.-

Improvement expenses declared as such under section 378 shall be a charge on the premises in respect of which or for the benefit of which, they have been incurred, and shall be recoverable in installments of such amount, not being less than twelve rupees per annum for each separate property, and at such intervals as will suffice to discharge such expenses, together with interest there on at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, within such period, not exceeding thirty years, as the Municipality may in each case determine.

(2) The said installments shall be payable by the owner of the premises on which the expenses are still payable or by the occupier to the extent of the rent which has or may become due from him.

(3) If any installment is not paid on or before the date on which it falls due, the Commissioner may recover interest on the sum due at such rate not exceeding nine per centum per annum as he may deem fit.

380. Right of owner or occupier to redeem charge for improvement expenses.-

At any time before the expiry of the period for the payment of any improvement expenses, the owner or occupier of the premises on which they are charged may redeem such charge by paying to the Commissioner such part of the said expenses as are still payable.

381. Execution of work by occupier in default of owner and deduction of expenses from rent.-

Whenever the owner of any land or building fails to execute any work which he is required to execute under this Act or under any rule or byelaw made there under, the occupier, if any, of such land or building may with the previous approval of the Commissioner, execute the said work, and shall be entitled to recover from the owner the reasonable expenses incurred by him in so doing and may, without prejudice to any other right of recovery, deduct the amount thereof from the rent payable by him to the owner.

382. Limitation of liability of agent or trustee.-

No person who receives the rent of any land or building as an agent or trustee only shall be liable to do anything which by this Act or any rule or byelaw made there under is required to be done by an owner, if he proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he has not in his hands funds belonging or payable to the owner sufficient for the purpose:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to prevent the Commissioner from carrying out the necessary works and recovering the expenses so incurred from the actual owner.

Payment of Compensation

383. General power of Commissioner to pay compensation.-

In any case not otherwise expressly provided for in this Act, or in any rule or bylaw made there under, the Commissioner may, with the previous approval of the Mayor-in-Council, pay compensation to any person who sustain damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested by this Act or by any such rule or byelaw in the Commissioner, or in any municipal officer or servant.

384. Compensation to owner for value of immovable property deteriorated.-

PART XII
CHAPTER XXXIX

ELECTION PETITIONS

441. Election Petitions.-

- (1) No election or nomination under this Act shall be called into question except by a petition presented in accordance with the provisions of this section.
- (2) Such petition may be presented on one or more of the grounds specified in section 441-B.
 - (a) by any candidate at such election or nomination; or
 - (b) (i) in the case of an election of a Councillor, by any voter of the ward concerned;
 - (ii) in the case of nomination of a Councillor, by any Councillor,
 - (iii) in the case of election of Mayor, by any voter of the Municipal area to the Principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction (hereinafter referred as the Court) within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the election or nomination was held.
- (3) No petition presented under sub-section (2) shall be admitted unless-
 - (i) it is presented within thirty days from the date on which the result of such election or nomination was notified in the Gazette; and
 - (ii) it is accompanied by the Government Treasury receipt showing a deposit of two hundred and fifty rupees.
- (4) a petitioner shall join as respondents to his petition-
 - (a) where the petitioner, in addition to claiming a declaration that the election or nomination as the case may be, of all or any of the returned candidates is void, claims a further declaration that he himself or any other candidates has been duly elected or nominated all the contesting candidates other than the petitioner, and where no such further declaration is claimed, all the returned candidates;
 - (b) any other candidate against whom allegations of any corrupt practices are made in the petition.
- (5) An election petition shall-
 - (a) contain a concise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies;
 - (b) with sufficient particulars, set forth the ground or grounds on which the election or nomination is called in question;
 - (c) be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner prescribed in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), for the verification of pleadings.

441-A. Relief that may be claimed by the petitioner.-

A petitioner may claim-

- (a) a declaration that the election or nomination of all or any of the returned candidates is void; and
 - (b) in addition there to, a further declaration that he himself or any other candidates has been duly elected or nominated.
- (2) The expression “returned candidate” means a candidate whose name is notified in the Gazette under section 22.

441-B Grounds for declaring elections or nomination to be void.-

(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), if the Court is of the opinion-

(a) that on the date of his election or nomination a returned candidate was not qualified or was disqualified, to be chosen as a Mayor or a Councillor; or

(b) that any corrupt practice has been committed by a returned candidate or his agent; or

(c) that any nomination paper has been improperly rejected; or

(d) that the result of the election, or nomination in so far as it concerns a returned candidate has been materially affected-

(i) by the improper acceptance of any nomination; or

(ii) by a corrupt practice having been committed in the interest of the returned candidate by a person other than that candidate or his agent or a person acting with the consent of such candidate or agent; or

(iii) by the improper acceptance or refusal of any vote or rejection of any vote which is void; or

(iv) by the non-compliance with the provisions of this Act or of any rules or orders-made there under save the rules framed under section 14 in so far as they relate to preparation and revision of list of voters;

the Court shall declare the election of the returned candidate to be void.

(2) If the opinion of the Court a returned candidate has been guilty by an agent of any corrupt practice, but the Court is satisfied-

(a) that no such corrupt practice was committed at the election or nomination by the candidate, and every such corrupt practice was committed contrary to the instructions, and without the consent of the candidate;

(b) that the candidate took all reasonable means for preventing the commission of corrupt practices at the election or nomination; and

(c) that in all other respect the election or nomination was free from any corrupt practice on the part of the candidate or any of his agents; then, the Court may decide that the election or nomination or the returned candidate is not void.

441-C. Procedure to be followed in disposal of election petition.-

An election petition shall be enquired into and disposed of according to such summary procedure as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act.

441-D. Decision of Election Petition.-

(1) At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, the Court shall make an order-

(a) dismissing the election petition; or

(b) declaring the election or nomination of all or any of the returned candidates to be void; or

(c) declaring the election or nomination of all or any of the returned candidates to be void and the petitioner and any other candidate to have duly elected or nominated.

(2) If any person who has filed an election petition has, in addition to calling in question the election or nomination of the returned candidate, claimed declaration, that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected or nominated and the Court is of opinion-

(a) that in fact the petitioner or such other candidate received a majority of the valid votes; or

(b) that but for the votes obtained by the returned candidate the petitioner or such other candidate would have obtained a majority of the valid votes;

the Court shall, after declaring the election or nomination of the returned candidate to be void, declare the petitioner or such other candidate, as the case may be, to have been duly elected or nominated.

(3) At the time of making an order under this section, the Court shall also make an order-

(a) where any charge is made in the petition of any corrupt practice having been committed at the election or nomination recording-

(i) a finding whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed at the election or nomination and the nature of that corrupt practice; and

(ii) the name of all persons, if any, who have been proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt practice and the nature of that practice; and

(b) fixing the total amount of costs payable, and specifying the person by and to whom costs shall be paid:

Provided that a person who is not an party to the petition shall not be named in the order under sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) unless-

(a) he has been given notice to appear before the Court and show cause why he should not be so named; and

(b) if he appears in pursuance of the notice, he has been given an opportunity of cross-examining any witness who has already been examined by the Court and has given evidence against him, of calling evidence in his defence and of being heard.

441-E. Procedure in case of equality of votes.-

If during the trial of an election petition it appears that there is an equality of votes between any candidate at the election or nomination and that an addition of a vote would entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected or nominated then, the court shall decide between them by lot and proceed as if the one for whom the lot falls had received an additional vote.

441-F. Finality of decisions.-

(a) no appeal shall lie against the decision of the Court on the petition.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Court on the petition may within thirty days from the date of such decision apply to the High Court for revision on any of the following grounds:-

(a) that the decision is contrary to law;

(b) that the Court has exercised jurisdiction not vested in it by law or has failed to exercise a jurisdiction vested in it by law;

but subject to such orders as the High Court may pass thereon, such decision shall be final.

441.G . Disqualification arising out of corrupt practices.-

If any person, after the commencement of this Act, is, upon the trial of an election petition there under, found guilty of any corrupt practice, he shall, for a period of five years from the date on which such finding takes effect, be disqualified for voting at any election.

Provided that the State Government may, by notification, remove the disqualification incurred under this section with effect from such date as may be specified therein.

441-H. Corrupt practices.-

The following shall be deemed to be corrupt practices for the purposes of this Act:-

- (i) Bribery as defined in clause (1) of section 123 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (43 of 1951).
- (ii) Undue influence as defined in clause (2) of the said section.
- (iii) The systematic appeal by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent, to vote or refrain from voting on grounds of caste, race, community or religion or the use of, or appeal to, religious symbols or, the use of, or appeal to national symbols such as the national flag or the national emblem for the furtherance of the prospects of that candidate's election.
- (iv) The publication by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent of any statement of fact which is false, and which he either believes to be false, or does not believe to be true, in relation to the personal character or conduct of any candidate or in relation to the candidature, or withdrawal of any candidate, being a statement reasonably calculated to prejudice the prospects of that candidate's election.
- (v) The hiring or procuring whether on payment or otherwise of any vehicle or vessel by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent for the conveyance of any elector (other than the candidate himself, the members of his family or his agent) to or from any polling station provided in accordance with the rules made under this Act:

Provided that the hiring of a vehicle or vessel by an elector or by several electors at their joint costs for the purpose of conveying him or them to or from any such polling station shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause if the vehicle or vessel so hired is a vehicle or vessel not propelled by mechanical power:

Provided further that the use of any public transport vehicle or vessel or any tram car or railway carriage by an elector at his own cost for purpose of going to or coming for any such polling station shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause.

Explanation.- In this clause the expression 'vehicle' means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise and whether used for drawing other vehicles or otherwise.

- (vi) The holding of any meeting in which intoxicating liquors are served.
- (vii) The issuing of any circular, play card or poster having a reference to the election which does not bear the name and address of the printer and publisher thereof.
- (vii-a) The incurring or authorizing of election expenditure in excess of the amount prescribed under section 14-A.
- (viii) Any other practice which the State Government may prescribe by rules to be corrupt practice.
